

A romantic fantasy illustration of a young man and woman sitting on a large, ornate blue armchair in a vast library. The woman, with long brown hair and a white headband, wears a white dress with a blue skirt and holds a green book. The man, with dark hair, wears a brown patterned jacket and holds a quill and an open book. A glowing, ethereal figure of a woman in a white dress appears behind them, surrounded by swirling purple and pink smoke. The library is filled with floor-to-ceiling bookshelves packed with books. On the floor around the chair are several open and closed books, a small table with a lit candle, and a small statue. The word "Romantasy" is written in a large, glowing, white cursive font across the bottom of the image.

She's primed to become a worldwide phenomenon as the tenth and final book is set to debut after the annual romance readers convention takes place in Chicago next week. As buzz continues to build toward the book's release, Sofie is asked to headline the event for the first time, a career milestone. One she won't let anyone take from her, especially the next Sofie Wilde. That's what they're calling her. Hartley West, the self-published debut author who writes in the style of Sofie Wilde. Except she doesn't actually write anything. After Hartley admits to using AI to create her novel, Sofie's ready to watch Hartley be skewered on social media. Except in this unpredictable world, Hartley is instead lauded for being innovative, for being such a skilled editor to take what the AI churned out and massage it into a story that's just as compelling as Sofie's, maybe even more so. After her unhinged rant unintentionally goes viral, Sofie loses her keynote, and she's starting to lose all her support. That loss is Hartley's gain, as her book sales start soaring, she's given the headliner spot. Sofie is livid. And she's not the only one. As the convention begins, Sofie is surrounded by fellow authors who also fear for their futures, their livelihoods, their art being stripped away. One AI prompt at a time. Something must be done. This has to be stopped. Now. With the clock ticking down to the keynote, Sofie enlists her fellow authors in a plan to stop Hartley vowing, "The next Sofie Wilde over my dead body. Or hers."
