Syltie,2025-05-07 Cities and urban areas capture over 55% of the world s population especially in Western nations where up to 85% live in cities Satan and the City shows conclusively from Scriptural and secular sources that this environment is a product of the Devil himself and ought to be avoided if possible in favor of the uncluttered life of rural pastoral lands Families and individuals ought to place themselves within the peaceful freedom of the countryside for the sake of family integrity self sufficiency and closeness to the Creator as He intended mankind to live How much better is a life lived among the greens blues and natural colors of the creation surrounding you than among the grays and blacks of concrete jungles in cities and housing developments like rats in cages Journey through the pages of Scripture and the research of experts to see how this seldom addressed issue should be pivotal in the lives of all Christians See how the world will someday soon be changed as cities are rebuilt on the pattern of the Garden Eden itself The waste cities after the end time conflagration will be rebuilt but on an entirely different pattern than we see around us today What an incredible future the world has to look forward to at the return of Jesus Christ but in the meantime we need to do what we can to avoid the evils of the city that strive to capture people to Satan s ways
