Corporation of New York and The Paley Center for Media billed as a Summit on Journalism in the Service of Democracy in New York City on January 8-9. They heard firsthand about the bind confronting both newspapers and the broadcast television networks as they lose readers, viewers and advertisers. But they also heard some surprisingly upbeat words about the talents, skill and enthusiasm that a younger generation is bringing to the profession and even some praise for what is taught in the nation's leading journalism schools. The summit was a natural outgrowth of the evolving conversations about journalism education that are an intrinsic component of the six-year-old initiative created by Carnegie Corporation of New York and the John S. and James L. Additionally, many universities and educational institutions have their own digital libraries that provide free access to PDF books and manuals.

These libraries often offer academic texts, research papers, and technical manuals, making them invaluable resources for students and researchers.
