More Than The Gift A Love Relationship:

More Than the Gift Larry J. Robinson, 2008-06 Each week tens of millions of Christians around the world give offerings during worship services without considering the reasons why God has asked them to give and what purposes He has in mind Robinson discusses God's plans and purposes behind giving

The Gift of a Lifetime Barbara J. Peters, 2009-11-13 When was the last time you performed a little maintenance on your marriage Once many couples say I do and return home from the honeymoon they kick back and put their marriages on autopilot Then when they hit those bumps in the road they wonder why their unions are on shaky ground Marriage maintenance really isn't any different from anything that needs routine attention It's pretty logical really If you take care of something it's apt to last a lot longer Peters introduces her formula for building growing and keeping a marriage healthy and long lasting She calls it F A C T S a powerful acronym that can strengthen a marriage F is for Forgiveness A is for Acceptance C is for Compassion T is for Trust and S is for Spirituality Ideal for People who are getting married or engaged Already married and renewing vows Already married and just need to improve what they already have Anyone in a committed relationship who wants it to work for the long haul

Soulful Aging Henry C. Simmons, Jane Wilson, 2001 Soulful Aging is about cultivating an informed conversation about some of the most important religious realities of life There are six chapters each tied to one of the six stages of aging Extended Middle Age Ready or Not The New Me Like It or Not The Rest of Living and Dying Each chapter looks at the pathways to personal and communal spiritual growth community prayer teaching proclamation service and witness

Gift of Life Roberta G. Simmons, Susan Klein Marine, Richard Lawrence Simmons, 1987-01-01 Analyzing one of the most dramatic of the new medical technologies Organ Transplantation Gift of Life covers those aspects that have general implications for public policy and sociological theory and describes the social psychological impact of kidney transplantation itself Gift of Life begins with an examination of the overall unresolved ethical issues related to kidney transplantation the problem of selecting patients for a scarce therapy the problem of withholding treatment from patients of greater physical and psychological risk the issue of utilizing living related kidney donors vs cadaver donors The book concentrates on organ donors and their families and studies the effect of this type of extreme altruism It also examines the stress for the family as the members try to decide who if anyone will give a kidney The work shows how individuals and families make major decisions under stress Discussed in detail are family communication processes and emotional relationships between donor and recipient as well as the impact of donation upon the family of the cadaver donor The final analysis deals with the health care delivery issues and the questions of funding created by the rapid rise of this new technology Gift of Life with its exposition of decision making communication and reaction to stress is of relevance to social science theory and policy
