MORNING MEETING ACTIVITIES

BY: THE MOUNTAIN TEACHER

BOOM CHICKA BOOM

All players scatter around. One or more beach balls/balloons are thrown up in the air. The students try to hit it as many times as they can before it hits the ground. To make the game more fun, each student can only hit the ball once until everyone has had a turn.

NAME GREETINGS

Everyone starts standing up. The first student rolls a die, then counts that many people away from them. They greet that student then the roller sits down. The greeted student then rolls and sits down, until everyone has a turn.

Students greet with voices

ANIMAL WALK

Each student gets assigned an animal. Students have to walk around making that animal's sound until they find their match.

CALLER HIDE

One student is a caller and stands in the middle of the room. This student closes their eyes and counts to ten until all other students are hiding in a corner. The student then names a corner, and all students in that corner sit down until one person is left standing.

CLOSED EYES

Students close their eyes then open them at the same time. When they open their eyes, they need to go greet the person they are looking at.

Each student has a name tag

BOOM CHICKA BOOM

Students can take turns being callers. Use different styles (farmer style, whisper style, grumpy style) repeating each line "I said a boom chicka boom, I said a boom chicka boom, I said a boom chicka boom chicka boom chicka boom, Uh-huh, Oh yeah, One more time!"

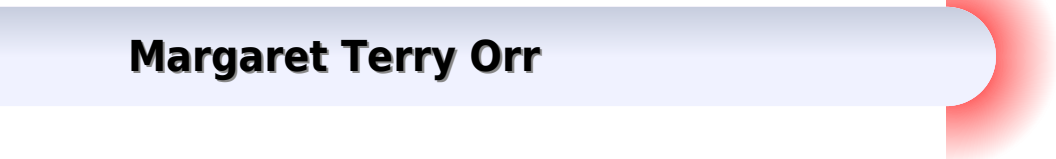

BOOM CHICKA BOOM

Students count from 1 to 100. When a student comes to a number with a seven in it, they say buzz. If they mess up or it gets to 100 they are out. Keep going until there is only one student left.
