 Making choices is one of the more pervasive acts of life. Almost every action we take demands that choices be made. Knowing how to choose wisely to choose after reflection to be aware of what motivates that choice to see the consequences of that choice on others enables us to live healthier, more productive and more responsible lives. We now live in a world in which our traditional moral exemplars have been less than honorable in their public behavior. With fewer heroes and flawed role models, how are children to come to an understanding of what's right, what's good, decent and socially responsible? Do as I say, not as I do, is hardly a viable tenet to guide children's choices. This book offers important tools for carrying out effective strategies that build caring environments in the classroom and home for teaching children to weigh decisions in the face of potential consequences, examine rationales for their choices and study the effects of their choices on others, i.e. to think more carefully about ethical problems in the presence of the moral freedom to determine for themselves what it means to lead a good and virtuous life. Children's Books In Print 1998 Bowker Editorial Staff, R.R. Bowker Publishing, Bowker, 1998
