Plays Well with Others Sophie Brickman,2024-08-06 Funny relatable fiction for anyone who thinks they're above the fray but still want to read all about it People Heavenly hilarity for readers Good Housekeeping A whip smart satirical romp through the minefield of modern motherhood in the vein of Where'd You Go Bernadette and Fleishman Is in Trouble It takes a village just not this one

Annie Lewin is at the end of her rope. She's a mother of three young children, her workaholic husband is never around, and the vicious competition for spots in New York City's kindergartens is heating up. A New York Times journalist turned parenting advice columnist for an internet start-up, Annie can't help but judge the insanity of it all, even as she finds herself going to impossible lengths to secure the best spot for her own son. As Annie comes to terms with the infinitesimal odds of success, her intensifying rivalry with hotshot lawyer Belinda Brenner, a deliciously hateful nemesis, what with her perfectly curated bento box lunches and effortless Instagram chic, pushes her to the brink. Of course, this newly raw and unhinged version of Annie is great for the advice column: the more she spins out, the more clicks and comments she gets. But when she commits a ghastly social faux pas that goes viral, she's forced to confront the question: is she really any better than the cutthroat parents she always judged? A shimmering epistolary novel incorporating emails, group texts, advice columns, newspaper profiles, and more. Plays Well with Others is a whip-smart, genuinely funny romp through the minefield of modern motherhood. But beneath its fast-paced satirical veneer, Brickman gives us a fresh, open-hearted, all-too-real take on what it means to be a parent: fierce love, craziness, and all. The Sunshine Potluck Society Lilly Mirren, 2024-06-11

Four women. One monthly potluck brunch. And the friendships that become family. Lifelong friends Joanna, Debbie, and Gwen grew up on Bribie Island together in the quaint little hamlet of Sunshine. Now that they're on the cusp of retirement, they hold a regular potluck brunch to catch up. Joanna is a retired chef who married a restaurateur in her twenties. Now she's a sixty-year-old widow; she finds it hard to leave the house. The world is so big and overwhelming at times she decides to hire full-time live-in carer Emily Miller to help her navigate it. She pays the bills by writing cookbooks and spends her days testing out recipes with Emily, pitching in. Debbie is a glamorous sixty and can't bring herself to fully retire. The successful law firm she spent her life building requires her constant attention, and she struggles to pull herself away to embrace a more relaxed pace of life with her friends in Sunshine. Her husband is a workaholic as well, and the two of them never had children. They hardly see each other most weeks, and she's beginning to wonder if he's intentionally isolating himself. Gwen was a stay-at-home mother for over two decades, but now her husband and children act entitled and spoiled. They don't have the kind of respect for her she'd hoped. When her husband's dirty laundry comes home smelling of a perfume she doesn't recognise, she worries her perfectly manicured life may well fall apart. Joanna's grandson Aaron moves back to the island looking for a place to live. She lets him stay with her until he gets on his feet. But that forces Emily to face the boy who ghosted her after high school graduation. Aaron Gilston was her brother's best friend, the high school bad boy and captain of the hockey team. Her first childhood crush; he stole her first kiss and then broke her heart. And now he's back in town, living in the bedroom beside hers. From the USA Today bestselling author of The Waratah Inn series, with over one million books sold, comes a captivating new beach read: A feel-good small town story.
