out four practices communicative engagement just peacemaking grassroots organizing and nonviolence The result is a new model of Christian ethics that is inclusive egalitarian ecological and justice and peace oriented which overcomes the limitations of traditional covenantal ethics In the second part of the book Lee systematically applies New Covenant ethics to the most urgent and controversial social issues of our time democratic politics economic ethics creation care criminal justice race sex and marriage medicine and war and peace Through his deep pastoral and irenic inquiries into these difficult topics Lee demonstrates a pattern of covenantal moral reasoning that undercuts the dominant neoliberal ethos of individualism and transactional relationship that more and more influences Christian moral decisions His conclusion is that as covenant has been at the heart of modern democracy human rights civil society and civic formation a renewed understanding of covenant centered in Jesus can help to heal our broken society and imperiled planet and to reorganize the fragmented human life in the era of globalization and digitization Where Do You Stand? Gregory C.
