Psychiana Man Brandon R. Schrand, 2022-01-24 Six weeks after the 1929 stock market crash Frank Bruce Robinson created a self help religion he called Psychiana An ingenious mass marketing pioneer he sold a correspondence course promising health wealth and happiness to those who believed in the God Power In the midst of the Great Depression his mail order religion with a money back guarantee swept the United States and spread to some sixty seven countries or so its founder claimed to become one of the most successful twentieth century New Thought religions Facing charges of passport fraud in May 1936 an immaculately dressed Robinson arrived at the federal building in rural Moscow Idaho A person of considerable local and regional significance he was Latah County s largest private employer Throngs lined the streets and sidewalks waiting for him He exited his sleek green Duesenberg waved to the crowd and smiled for pictures His son later wrote that the charismatic leader possessed an insatiable appetite for publicity Central to the investigation was Robinson s true identity He was not all he claimed to be and his small town trial captivated the country and made national headlines A full length biography of Robinson combined with an in depth historical examination of Psychiana this book traces the improbable rise and fall of a master charlatan while also giving voice to his unwavering followers from a dust bowl farmer to a former heavyweight boxing champion who clung to their beliefs despite ongoing financial and emotional costs Their stories reveal how adversity can galvanize faith in a false prophet and paint an intriguing intimate portrait of a nation challenged by a brutal depression and war

Pleasant Journeys and Good Eats Along the Way John Baeder, 2007 Pleasant Journeys and Good Eats along the Way surveys John Baeder s thirty five year obsession with roadside architecture especially America s diners and complements Baeder s Morris Museum of Art exhibit of the same name Originally attracted to classic postcard images of mom and pop businesses and old black and white photos of downtowns Baeder b 1938 has spent most of his art career depicting these beloved but unpretentious restaurants Often classified as a photorealist Baeder has always resisted being labeled He sees his paintings as a plea for preservation and a way to reveal the psychology behind diners Before the era of corporate fast food Americans on the road looked to diners to provide meals like mother makes a descriptive phrase found in Baeder s very first diner painting Home cooking was especially appealing to weary tourists who took to the American highway in increasing numbers between the 1920s and the 1960s By the late 1970s Baeder s paintings had become wildly popular Baeder s paintings resonate in melodies of color and line and exhibit their personalities through hand lettered placards and neon signs They invite the viewer to absorb the everyday simplicity of roadside architecture in new ways and to discover the values of hearth and home in unexpected places John Baeder of Nashville is a well known realist painter His work is in the permanent collections of the Whitney Museum of American Art High Museum of Art and many others Jay Williams is curator at the Morris Museum of Art in Augusta Georgia His previous publications include Illuminated Literature The Art of Jerry and Brian Pinkney and What Dogs Dream Paintings and Works on Paper by William Dunlap Kevin Grogan is the director of the Morris Museum of Art Donald Kuspit is professor of art history and philosophy at the State University of New York at Stony Brook Who's who in American Art ,1993-12 U.S. Geological Survey Circular ,1933 Who's Who in American Art, 1991-1992 Bowker Editorial Staff,R R Bowker Publishing,1990 General Technical Report RMRS ,1998 Research Natural Areas on National Forest System Lands in Idaho, Montana, Nevada, Utah, and Western Wyoming ,2001 Catalogue of the Library of the Peabody Museum of Archaeology and Ethnology Peabody Museum of Archaeology and Ethnology.
