Human Resources
StarTech Enterprises
12 Market St.
Palo Alto, CA 94020

Dear Mr. Maloof,

I'm thrilled for the opportunity to apply for the role of executive vice president at StarTech Enterprises. I believe my experience leading large teams and casting vision in the technology space would allow me to excel as your new EVP and help take StarTech's operations to the next level.

I started my career as a software engineer, and I have a deep understanding of the challenges, needs and culture of tech firms like StarTech. Throughout my career, I've grown into managerial and leadership positions through proven problem-solving, vision and systems development. I believe these skills will serve StarTech as the company looks to expand into the artificial intelligence market.

My knack for problem-solving and creating systems has served me well throughout my career. Because of this natural skill set, I found technology to be a perfect fit for my passions and technical abilities. Over time, I honed my leadership skills and grew a small developer team into a large-scale department, all while earning the trust and respect of my direct reports. Under my leadership, the developer unit grew from a team of four to a department of 36 people, and we increased productivity. Coding output increased by 18% through new, highly organized and effective workflow and review systems. I'm confident I can help continue to grow and train StarTech's developer teams and increase productivity for future projects.

I appreciate you taking time to consider my application and experience. I've been following StarTech's growth in the tech space for several years, and I have high hopes to contribute to the firm's rapid expansion and industry impact. I would be proud to share my combination of vision and execution with the team as the new executive vice president.

Sincerely,
Josh Jones
