Susan White

Head of Customer Experience

Charter CARE Health Partners

7 Waterman Ave

North Providence, RI 02911

Dear Susan,

As someone who recognizes Charter CARE Health Partners as the premier Health and Human Service Agency in the East Bay, I was thrilled to see an opening for a Medical Receptionist position with your company. With my 5+ years of experience as a receptionist, I am confident in my ability to provide accurate and timely communication to patients and visitors in a courteous and respectful manner for Charter CARE Health Partners.

In the job listing, you state that you're looking for a skilled receptionist to be responsible for warmly greeting clients upon arrival, creating an inviting reception area, and entering data into your record system. In my current position with Lifespan, I ran the front desk of a 10 person primary care office and acted as a liaison between physician and patient walk-ins requiring immediate appointments. I also created an automated system to update how we schedule appointments and transportation for patients. My automation process cut down on missed visits and overbooking by 40%. I'm sure this experience will result in similar results for Charter CARE Health Partners.

I am impressed with the quality of the care you provide your patients and the atmosphere you create in your offices. Being part of your team and continuing to help with this mission would be a dream opportunity for my career development.

Can we schedule a meeting or a call to discuss solutions for optimizing reception processes at Charter CARE Health Partners while retaining your client satisfaction metrics?

Thank you,

Jason V. Cross

Cover Letters That Blow Doors Open Anne McKinney, 2012-04-02. Although a resume is important, the cover letter is the first impression. This book is a compilation of great cover letters that helped real people get in the door for job interviews against stiff competition. Included are letters that show how to approach employers when you're moving to a new area, how to write a cover letter when you're changing fields or industries, and how to arouse the employer's interest in dialing your number first from a stack of resumes. Some of the cover letters in this book landed jobs in fields including financial consulting, data entry, insurance, banking, customer service, school systems, restaurants, hospitality industry, retail, police force, social work, nonprofit organizations, sales, municipalities, medicine and healthcare, landscaping, management information systems, teaching, publishing, top management, electronics, accounting, and auditing, agriculture, criminal justice, human resources, manufacturing, automotive, telecommunications, dentistry, academic affairs, childcare, sports, rest homes, business operations, journalism, quality control, the arts, bookselling, and many other fields. Designed as a comprehensive guide to cover letter preparation, the 272-page book shows examples of exciting and door-opening cover letters. The first section of the book shows cover letters used to blow doors open in the accounting, banking, and financial community. From aviation to computer operations to management to sales to transportation, cover letters tailored to specific fields are illustrated, which can be used as models or templates tailored to specific fields. But what if a job hunter is changing fields or doesn't need a cover letter targeting a specific field or functional area? The book has a complete section showing examples of all-purpose cover letters, career change cover letters, cover letters for entrepreneurs, and cover letters for those seeking their first job. And for those seeking advice on how to respond to ads, how to handle questions about salary requirements, how to request consideration for multiple job openings in the organization, and how to write letters for special situations, there's a section entitled Sixteen Commonly Asked Questions About Cover Letters and Job Hunting. In a job hunt, the cover letter is the first impression, and great cover letters can blow doors open to create employment opportunities. Job
