Presidential Election Dustin Harp, 2019-04-09 Using a discourse analysis Dustin Harp investigates media during the 2016 US presidential election to explore how traditional patriarchal and feminist ideas about gender played out during the campaign. The book illustrates how these two ideologies competed for space and struggled for discursive authority. A broad range of media texts is examined and gender moments where gender became a dominant part of the political conversation are identified. These include the nasty woman and grab them by the pussy comments of Donald Trump and the woman card played by and against Hillary Clinton. Furthermore Harp reveals how binary notions of gender and stereotypical ideas of how men and women should behave look and sound structured the ways Donald Trump and Hillary Clinton were talked about in the media. As a counterpoint the research also shows the ways feminist ideologies worked against the sexism and misogyny and became mainstream in media discourse during the campaign. Students and researchers of Gender Studies will find that the gender moments in Gender in the 2016 US Presidential Election tell a broader story about women gender expectations and power. They offer important and timely insights about misogyny and sexual harassment in contemporary US culture and feminist resistance in a mediated public sphere.

Boating Life, 2002 Home in the Valley Louis L'Amour, 2014-09-16 A collection of some of the best short fiction writing from the most famous Western author of all time Louis L'Amour is indisputably the most famous and well respected writer to ever work in the Western genre. His stories captured life on the frontier at its most captivating and exciting and with well over two hundred million copies sold of his work his characters and stories have left an indelible mark on popular culture. Home in the Valley collects six of L'Amour's short stories written early in his career. In the title story Steve Mehan had accomplished what man had believed to be impossible. He had taken cattle from the home range in Nevada to sell in California in the dead of winter. Now the money from the cattle is on deposit with Dake Company but while in Sacramento California he learns to his shock that the company has failed and his money is almost surely lost. There is one hope that news of the closure hasn't yet reached a branch in faraway Portland Oregon. The only chance to get the money back will be to beat the steamer boat carrying the news to Portland. To do that Steve will need a long relay of horses and he will have to be almost continuously in the saddle. L'Amour's best work conjures up a romantic strangely compelling vision of the American West. Find out for yourself why L'Amour continues to be a household name and even decades after his death the gold standard for authentic Western storytelling. Skyhorse Publishing is proud to publish a broad range of books for readers interested in fiction that takes place in the old West. Westerns books about outlaws sheriffs chiefs and warriors cowboys and Indians are a genre in which we publish regularly. Our list includes international bestselling authors like Zane Gray and Louis L'Amour and many more. While not every title we publish becomes a New York Times bestseller or a national bestseller we are committed to books on subjects that are sometimes overlooked and to authors whose work might not otherwise find a home.
