Public Scholarship in Communication Studies Thomas J. Billard, Silvio Waisbord, 2024-03-26 Prometheus brought the gift of enlightenment to humanity and suffered for his benevolence This collection takes on scholars' Promethean view of themselves as selfless bringers of light and instead offers a new vision of public scholarship as service to society Thomas J Billard and Silvio Waisbord curate essays from a wide range of specialties within the study of communication Aimed at scholars and students alike the contributors use approaches from critical meditations to case studies to how to guides as they explore the possibilities of seeing shared knowledge not as a gift to be granted but as an imperative urging readers to address the problems of the world Throughout the volume the works show that a pivot to ideas of scholarship as public service is already underway in corners of communication studies across the country Visionary and provocative Public Scholarship in Communication Studies proposes a needed reconsideration of knowledge and a roadmap to its integration with community Contributors Elaine Almeida Becca Beets Thomas J Billard Danielle K Brown Aymar Jean Christian Stacey L Connaughton Paula Gardner Larry Gross Amy Jordan Daniel Kreiss Rachel Kuo Susan Mancino Shannon C McGregor Philip M Napoli Todd P Newman Srividya Ramasubramanian Chad Raphael Sue Robinson Silvio Waisbord Yidong Wang and Holley Wilkin Iranian Identity, American Experience Roksana Alavi, 2021-03-01 Iranian Identity American Experience

Philosophical Reflections on Race Rights Capabilities and Oppression is a multidisciplinary study of oppression using the Iranian American community as its case study In current studies of oppression there is little philosophical analysis or a theoretical framework to think about race from the perspective of an immigrant community in the United States that appears to be educated and affluent Iranian Identity American Experience fills this gap Alavi discusses a theory of oppression that addresses not only the external oppression inflicted on people of color but also the everyday actions that leave them in oppressive situations The book ends with suggestions for addressing oppression both individually and as a collective and for fighting to minimize its harms At the Speed of Lies Cindy L. Otis, 2023-06-06 Trust no one Question everything Quinn

Calvet was supposed to be having an epic year She had all kinds of plans with her best friend Ximena and sister Ava and to grow her following as an influencer on The Whine Instead Quinn finds herself third wheel to Ximena and her new boyfriend or getting ditched by Ava who has turned into an overachiever obsessed with studying and joining every school club It brings up Quinn's old feelings that her disability has left her behind She tries to talk to Ava about it but she's too busy with the newest club at school Defend Kids which is working frantically to help find two kids who were recently kidnapped from a nearby town Suddenly Defend Kids is all anyone is talking about and whenever Quinn posts about them on The Whine she gains tons of new followers and her posts go viral As the club works to get the message out more kids in the surrounding area go missing but it seems like the police and the media aren't doing much about it When two of Quinn's classmates are kidnapped the dangers that Defend Kids is trying to fight become all too real As Quinn and her friends search for the missing kids tensions escalate at school there s an uptick in bullying and conspiracy theories abound Before she knows it Quinn and The Whine are at the center of it all trying to find out what s really happening Only the truth might be more deadly than anyone knows
