Comparison

Rita Felski, Susan Stanford Friedman, 2013-06-15 An extended volume of New Literary History that considers the practice of comparison in literary studies and other disciplines within the humanities Writing and teaching across cultures and disciplines makes the act of comparison inevitable Comparative theory and methods of comparative literature and cultural anthropology have permeated the humanities as they engage more centrally with the cultural flows and circulation of past and present globalization How do scholars make ethically and politically responsible comparisons without assuming that their own values and norms are the standard by which other cultures should be measured Comparison expands upon a special issue of the journal New Literary History which analyzed theories and methodologies of comparison Six new essays from senior scholars of transnational and postcolonial studies complement the original ten pieces The work of Gayatri Chakravorty Spivak Ella Shohat Robert Stam R Radhakrishnan Bruce Robbins Ania Loomba Haun Saussy Linda Gordon Walter D Mignolo Shu mei Shih and Pheng Cheah are included with contributions by anthropologists Caroline B Brettell and Richard Handler Historical periods discussed range from the early modern to the contemporary and geographical regions that encompass the globe Ultimately Comparison argues for the importance of greater self reflexivity about the politics and methods of comparison in teaching and in research

Subcommittee on Energy and the Environment,1984 The Essential Academic Dean Jeffrey L. Buller,2007-11-09 The role of an academic dean is extremely complex involving budgeting community relations personnel decisions managing a large enterprise mastering numerous details fundraising and guiding a school or college toward a compelling vision for the future But no academic dean can quickly master all of the intricacies involved in this challenging position For instance how do you build support for a shared vision of your unit s future How do you interact effectively with all of the different internal and external constituencies that a dean must serve How do you set supervise and implement a budget How do you handle the volume of documents that cross your desk How do you fire someone ask a chair to step down respond to a reporter on the telephone and settle disputes about intellectual property rights How do you know when it s time to consider leaving your current position for another opportunity The Essential Academic Dean is about the how of academic leadership Based on a series of workshops given by the author on college administration and management each topic deals concisely with the most important information deans need at their fingertips when faced with a particular challenge or opportunity Written both as a comprehensive guide to the academic deanship and as a ready reference to be consulted when needed this book emphasizes proven solutions over untested theories and stresses what deans need to know now in order to be most successful as academic leaders

Teaching to Difference? The Challenges and Opportunities of Diversity in the Classroom Nicole E. Johnson, Stacey-Ann Wilson, 2014-08-11 Teaching to Difference The Challenges and Opportunities of Diversity in the Classroom offers a comparative perspective on the pedagogical and cultural issues in managing differences and diversity in the classroom Using reflections and experiential analysis the volume presents perspectives on the experiences of teaching and learning through differences of race ethnicity culture sexual orientation and gender language special needs and geography from contexts such as the United States Canada New Zealand and Israel The reflections are presented from the viewpoint of minority teaching professionals and white educators teaching diverse student populations ranging from K 12 to college students and pre service teachers This volume provides a lens into the questions reflections and experiences of teachers and practitioners when they encounter difference in the classroom The essays highlight the trepidation and frustration educators feel when they perceive themselves to be ill prepared for diversity in their classrooms However there are also essays of triumph and success when teachers feel they have reached their students in a meaningful way Additionally through the experiences depicted teachers describe their processes of connecting to students how they determined what worked and did not work in their journey and what they learned from the experience that continues to impact them

Higher Education in Romania: Overcoming Challenges and Embracing Opportunities Adrian Curaj, Jamil Salmi, Cezar Mihai Hâj, 2022-03-12 This open access book includes a series of relevant policy research articles elaborated in the framework of the Quality in higher education internationalisation and databases to enhance the Romanian education system project implemented by the Executive Agency for Higher Education Research Development and Innovation Funding UEFISCDI together with the Ministry of Education The project aims to develop and implement systemic measures at tertiary education level leading to an increased quality of the overall higher education system and universities better prepared for labour market requirements and international standards The book focuses on areas of interest for Romanian higher education such as systemic measures to improve access participation and completion for vulnerable students better promotion of the Romanian higher education to attract students as well as instruments for a more efficient use of data at higher education level Each article includes evidence based policy proposals that could support new strategic initiatives in higher education including new legislation Additionally the collection of articles tells a comprehensive story about the audacity of a higher education system which went through significant challenges to align itself with both European and international trends as well as respond to national imperatives Over the last three decades since the fall of the Iron Curtain Romanian higher education has undergone significant transformations aiming to align itself to the latest developments and trends at European and international level The National Law on Education no 1 2011 has set the stage for a full implementation of the Bologna Process action lines taking into account that Romania was already a part of the largest European intergovernmental process currently the European Higher Education Area EHEA as a founding member However since the adoption of this normative framework the law suffered numerous amendments making it challenging to observe and achieve coherence in its implementation Furthermore Romania is also currently redesigning the strategy for the allocation of European structural funds 2021 2027 based on two strategic documents the new Education and Employment Operational Programme and the National Recovery and Resilience Plan which highlight the reform and investment priorities at a national level At the same time 2021 is a good time to analyze the level of implementation for the objectives and measures included in the National Strategy for Tertiary Education 2015 2020 the Europe 2020 Strategy and the Bologna Process action lines in the 2010 2020 timeframe Therefore the present moment may be an important time to assess the impact of strategic documents and actions in the last decade and possibly to draft a new National Education Law better adapted to current realities starting from the recent initiative by the President of Romania the Educated Romania strategic vision which was also politically assumed by the Romanian Government
