Waging Peace Diana Oestreich, 2020-09-01. Diana Oestreich, a combat medic in the Army National Guard, enlisted like both her parents before her. But when she was commanded to run over an Iraqi child to keep her convoy rolling and keep her battle buddies safe, she was confronted with a choice she never thought she'd have to make. Torn between God's call to love her enemy and her country's command to be willing to kill, Diana chose to wage peace in a place of war. For the remainder of her tour of duty, Diana sought to be a peacemaker, leading to an unlikely and beautiful friendship with an Iraqi family. A beautiful and gut-wrenching memoir, Waging Peace exposes the false divide between loving our country and living out our faith's call to love our enemies. Whether we perceive our enemy as the neighbor with an opposing political viewpoint, the clerk wearing a head covering, or the refugee from a war-torn country, by showing that us versus them is a false choice, this book will inspire each of us to choose love over fear. High-Tech Trash Carolyn L. Kane, 2019-12-17. A free ebook version of this title will be available through Luminos University of California Press Open Access publishing program for monographs. Visit www.luminosoa.org to learn more. High Tech Trash analyzes creative strategies in glitch, noise, and error to chart the development of an aesthetic paradigm rooted in failure. Carolyn L. Kane explores how technologically influenced creative practices, primarily from the second half of the twentieth and first quarter of the twenty-first centuries, critically offset a broader culture of pervasive risk and discontent. In so doing, she questions how we continue onward, striving to do better and acquire more, despite inevitable disappointment. High Tech Trash speaks to a paradox in contemporary society in which failure is disavowed yet necessary for technological innovation. Popular Culture Imre Szeman, Susie O'Brien, 2017-09-05.
