Critical Code Studies Mark C. Marino, 2020-03-10 An argument that we must read code for more than what it does we must consider what it means Computer source code has become part of popular discourse Code is read not only by programmers but by lawyers artists pundits reporters political activists and literary scholars it is used in political debate works of art popular entertainment and historical accounts In this book Mark Marino argues that code means more than merely what it does we must also consider what it means We need to learn to read code critically Marino presents a series of case studies ranging from the Climategate scandal to a hacktivist art project on the US Mexico border as lessons in critical code reading Marino shows how in the process of its circulation the meaning of code changes beyond its functional role to include connotations and implications opening it up to interpretation and inference and misinterpretation and reappropriation The Climategate controversy for example stemmed from a misreading of a bit of placeholder code as a smoking gun that supposedly proved fabrication of climate data A poetry generator created by Nick Montfort was remixed and reimagined by other poets and subject to literary interpretation Each case study begins by presenting a small and self contained passage of code by coders as disparate as programming pioneer Grace Hopper and philosopher Friedrich Kittler and an accessible explanation of its context and functioning Marino then explores its extra functional significance demonstrating a variety of interpretive approaches

The Dark Social Toija Cinque,Alexia Maddox,Robert W. Gehl,2023-11-07 This book explores how people interact online through anonymous communication in encrypted hidden or otherwise obscured online spaces Beyond the Dark Web itself this book examines how the concept of dark social broadens the possibilities for examining notions of darkness and sociality in the age of digitality and datafied life The authors take into account technical moral ethical and pragmatic responses to ourselves and communities seeking to be belong in of the dark Scholarship on the Darknet and Dark Social Spaces tends to focus on the uses of encryption and other privacy enhancing technologies to engender resistance acts Such understandings of the dark social are naturally in tension with social and political theories which argue that for politics and acts to matter they must appear in the public light They are also in tension with popular narratives of the dark recesses of the web which are disparaged by structural powers who seek to keep their subjects knowable and locatable on the clear web The binary of dark versus light is challenged in this book The authors provocation is that practices of dark resistance motility and power are enacted by emerging data cultures This book draws together scholarship activism and creativity to push past conceptual binary positions and create new approaches to darknet and dark social studies The Dark Social Online Practices of Resistance Motility and Power will be a key resource for academics researchers and advanced students of media studies cultural studies communication studies research methods and sociology This book was originally published as a special issue of Continuum Journal of Media Cultural Studies

Youth Digital Health and Online Platforms Martyna Gliniecka,2024-12-27 Youth Digital Health and Online Platforms focuses on young people s use of the digital platform Reddit for health Drawing upon dialogism theory the book explores how young people produce a youth led discourse of youth digital health different from the adult led framing represented in youth digital health research policy and service delivery Peer led discussions online remain one of the controversial forms of youth digital health associated with negative peer influence or casual teenage talk This book argues that online peer led dialogues support young people s agency in health and that young people can benefit from dealing with health issues with peers The work is based on the digital ethnography of teenagers subreddits on Reddit and utilises a theoretical framework of dialogism a linguistic based theory originated by an early 20th century Russian philosopher Mikhail Bakhtin The book introduces the concept of dialogical youth led youth digital health discourse formed in the peer led space of Reddit This youth led discourse celebrates equality and diversity amongst people meanings and opinions It is constructed around three relational elements socio material affordances creative practices and a plurality of youth voices Reddit s pseudonymous anti authoritarian and egalitarian nature supports the emergence of this youth led discourse The book can interest scholars and lecturers in childhood and youth studies Internet studies and youth health studies Professionals such as policymakers service designers deliverers online safety educators and global youth and health agencies can use evidence based insights in their work with young people

Move Slowly and Build Bridges Robert W. Gehl, 2025 Move Slowly and Build Bridges tells the story of activists software developers artists and everyday people who have built the fediverse a large noncentralized alternative social media system In contrast to big tech corporations like Meta TikTok or X the fediverse is comprised of thousands of small independent communities who use a powerful internet protocol to communicate with one another These small communities can govern themselves and moderate content at the human scale in stark contrast to the global and advertiser friendly interests of Meta or X The Mastodon network is perhaps the most notable and successful platform in the fediverse Founded in 2016 Mastodon has positioned itself as an alternative to Twitter one that can be completely under the control of its members from its daily operations to its underlying software Making a noncentralized ethically run social media system is no easy task The people building the fediverse have faced burnout bigotry angry debates and death threats And they face constant nagging doubts can we really do this Can noncentralized social media survive Can we all of us have our own social media In this thoroughly researched book Robert W Gehl argues that the answer is yes but it won't be easy

Gaming Democracy Adrienne L. Massanari, 2024-10-29 How play and gaming culture have mainstreamed far right ideology through social media platforms From Gamergate to the ongoing Big Lie the far right has gone mainstream In Gaming Democracy Adrienne Massanari tracks the flames of toxicity found in the far right and alt right movements as they increasingly take up oxygen in American and global society In this pathbreaking contribution to the fields of internet studies game studies and gender studies Massanari argues that Silicon Valley's emphasis on meritocracy and free speech absolutism has driven this rightward slide These ideologies have been coded into social media spaces that implicitly silence marginalized communities and subject them to rampant abuse by groups that have learned to game the ecology of platforms algorithms and attention economies While populist movements are not new phenomena such as QAnon parental rights activism and COVID denialism are uniquely of the internet with supporters demonstrating both technical acumen and an ability to use memes and play as a way of both building community and fomenting dissent Massanari explores the ways that the far right uses memetic humor and geek masculinity as tools both to create a sense of community within these leaderless groups and to obfuscate their intentions Using the lens of play and game studies as well as the concept of metagaming Gaming Democracy is a novel contribution to our understanding of online platforms and far right political activism
