The Business of Sports Scott Rosner, Kenneth Shropshire, 2011-01-07 The Business of Sports Second Edition is a comprehensive collection of readings that focus on the multibillion dollar sports industry and the dilemmas faced by today's sports business leaders. Each chapter features concise introductions, a broad range of focused readings, and targeted discussion questions and graphs and tables to convey relevant financial data and other statistics.

CALIFORNIA OIL AND GAS, A Business of Sports and Economy Jimmy Hindle, 2016-04-29 An expert craftsmanship of sports journalism and a powerful statement about the business of sports and economy. Certain character depictions are fictitious to convey the utter seriousness of a sport's specification where the ownerships of Champcar waged a boycott against IndyCar and Indianapolis Motor Speedway IMS. Otherwise, oil and gas is a tightening up of economic realities, the real people on the verge of a financial takeover, and how such economies work in relation to Major League Sports. In historically speaking, the most productive times in U.S. economy, the Heists are back, and Phil Elmach driving for James Sedgwick. Only in oil and gas, Elmach joins Jake Coote and the experts in the Sunshine State. Turbochargers made the stealthiest cars, and successively, IndyCar's resolution of a sport's escalation costs. To the supercops, the top outfits in the Champcar-IndyCar merger war pose a threat in a downturn economy, and the owner teams recognize that tires aren't the only switch ups, but teams transferring into IndyCar. In the shuffle of cash egos and clashes, everyone gets caught to the comic drama of staying steps ahead of a supercop. In the chase, the story distinguishes myth from the legendary figures. Miles Deere's epic battles fit the grand schemes. Ground effects sold on American March know how was a version of Desert Storm on neighboring Area 51, and runs open wheel cars in excess of constructor rules. The Heists have nabbed the technology, or at least former American March. Jake Coote as advisor, teammate to Elmach's own answers.
