Mashed Potato Pizza

Introduction

My grandpa always tells me that people who laugh at their own mistakes will get everyone else to laugh along with them. Yesterday, I learned that he is right.

Beginning of the Story

"Stay in line," Mrs. Martin said. I knew right away that my friend Naomi wouldn't be able to cut. I looked at Naomi and frowned. Soon, the line began to move faster, and I followed along hoping that there would still be pizza.

When I reached the counter, I looked at the choices. I could only see chicken and mashed potatoes, macaroni and cheese, and fish. I could hear the rumbling of my very disappointed stomach.

Then, out of the corner of my eye, I saw one last piece of pepperoni pizza. I got so excited.

Middle Events

"Pepperoni pizza," I said politely. Mrs. Martin handed me the pizza. I took the paper plate so quickly that the pizza slid off the plate. I tried to save it, but the pizza landed in the pan of hot, buttery mashed potatoes.

I could feel my face turning redder and redder. All I could hear was laughter from the kids in line.

As I looked at the upside-down pizza, I heard Mrs. Martin's voice. "Maria, would you like a side of mashed potatoes with your pizza?"

End of the Story

I looked up and saw Naomi. She was laughing too. With a nervous smile, I said, "Of course."

Mrs. Martin smiled and scooped the mashed potato pizza on my plate. I looked around at my friends, and we all laughed again.

Conclusion

I never really believed my grandpa until I saw my friends laughing with me. The laughing made me feel good instead of just clumsy.

Equity & Cultural Responsiveness in the Middle Grades Kathleen M. Brinegar, Lisa M. Harrison, Ellis Hurd, 2019-04-01 While developmental responsiveness is a deservedly key emphasis of middle grades education this emphasis has often been to the detriment of focusing on the cultural needs of young adolescents This Handbook volume explores research relating to equity and culturally responsive practices when working with young adolescents Middle school philosophy largely centers on young adolescents as a collective group This lack of focus has great implications for young adolescents of marginalized identities including but not limited to those with culturally and linguistically diverse backgrounds LGBTQ youth and those living in poverty If middle level educators claim to advocate for young adolescents we need to mainstream conversations about supporting all young adolescents of marginalized identities It empowers researchers educators and even young adolescents to critically examine and understand the intersectionality of identities that historically influenced and continue to affect young adolescents and why educators might perceive marginalized youth in certain ways It is for these reasons that researchers teachers and other key constituents involved in the education of young adolescents must devote themselves to the critical examination and understanding of the historical and current socio cultural factors affecting all young adolescents The chapters in this volume serve as a means to open an intentional and explicit space for providing a critical lens on early adolescence a lens that understands that both developmental and cultural needs of young adolescents need to be emphasized to create a learning environment that supports every young adolescent learner Houghton Mifflin English Houghton Mifflin, Writing from the Inside Out Christopher C.
