Longmore, 2015-12-28 Movie stars entertainers game show hosts jugglers plate spinners gospel choirs corporate executives posing with over sized checks household name brand products smiling children in leg braces all were fixtures of the phenomenon that defined American culture in the second half of the twentieth century the telethon Hundreds of millions watched these weekend long variety shows that raised billions of dollars for disability related charities Drawing on over two decades of in depth research Telethons trenchantly explores the complexity underneath the campy spectacles At its center are the disabled children who thanks to a particular kind of historical cultural marginalization turned out to be ideal tools for promoting corporate interests privatized healthcare and class status Offering a public message about helping these unfortunate victims telethons perpetuated a misleading image of people with disabilities as helpless passive apolitical members of American society Paul K Longmore s revelatory chronicle shows how these images in fact helped major corporations increase their bottom lines while filling gaps in the strange public private hybrid U S health insurance system Only once disabled people pushed back in public protests did the broader implications for all Americans become clear Mining insights from great thinkers such as Adam Smith Edmund Burke and Alexis de Tocqueville along with contemporary cultural figures like Jerry Lewis Ralph Nader and several disability rights activists Telethons offers a provocative meditation on big business American government popular culture Cold War values and activism both narrowly and broadly defined As highly popular entertainment telethons schooled Americans about how to feel about their bodies fitness health and appropriate ways to interact with people whose bodies did not fit norms determined by advertisers The programs also taught them about when to weep and how to cure guilt through conspicuous contribution Longmore s astute observations about psychology economics and society reveal how writing off telethons as kitsch and irrelevant has enabled many individual attitudes corporate practices and government policies to go unquestioned Ultimately Telethons reveals the passion humanity resistance and triumph that were not center stage on these popular telecasts by offering insights into the U S disability movement past and present

Providing Residential Care Services for the Elderly Doris K. Williams,1992

Proverbs 31 Linda Ogbah Faas,2022-10-12 As I was reading Proverbs 31 yet again yearning to learn all I could from this virtuous woman in order to be a better version of myself it started dawning on me that it has been spoken of and taught to us on how to be a virtuous woman at home in the church and in our community However not much emphasis has been placed on the business building entrepreneurial characteristics of the same virtuous woman when every verse in her chapter literally mentions one business or another that she founded or managed This resonated in me to shine a bright light on all these qualities that were unintentionally underdiscussed Maybe it was because she was a woman doing business or maybe we are too accustomed to women being assumed to manage only the home In this day and age many women manage not just their homes but they manage businesses organizations churches educational institutes military units and much more In order to represent these modern women I also needed to point out that women managing businesses did not start with the virtuous woman it started with the first generation of women that were mentioned in the Bible As you read the stories of these Bible women and how their daily lives transcend to modern women in our generation you get to read real life stories of Christian women that have diligently combined the ability of managing their families and their businesses and still kept God first and foremost in their lives just as the Proverbs 31 virtuous woman did
