Experience, Culture and Religion in Systematic Theology Edmond Zi-Kang Chua, 2023-09-28 Most systematicians take as their starting point the nature of God and scripture as the means by which God's nature is revealed but what would a systematic theology look like that began with an experiential knowledge of God Here Edmond Chua offers a method for just such an approach Beginning with realms of human experience including psychology cultural diversity and religious plurality he builds the framework of a systematic theology that is inclusive and pluriform while retaining the core tenets of a Christian doctrine of God Notwithstanding his novel methodology Chua's argument remains biblically rooted and appreciative of the Christian tradition In the latter half of the book he returns to the classical doctrines of the Trinity Christology evil sin and salvation allowing his inclusive view of the human religious experience to shed new light on the wisdom bequeathed by Paul Augustine Aquinas Luther Barth and others The result is a bold Christian vision that is culturally engaged and globally applicable of interest to systematic theologians while contributing to interreligious dialogue The God Who Trusts Wm.

Curtis Holtzen, 2019-12-10 The Bible resounds with affirmations that God is faithful and trustworthy But might he also exhibit faith and trust Wm Curtis Holtzen contends that because God is a being of relational love and exists in relationship with humans then God is a God who trusts Holtzen argues that understanding the relationship between divine trust and human faith can give us a fuller truer picture of who God is and who we are Grace for All Clark H. Pinnock, John D.

Wagner, 2015-03-31 Did Christ atone for the sins of humanity on the cross Does God desire all people to be saved and direct his grace toward all people for that purpose There are some Christians following a deterministic paradigm who believe this is not true They believe God has predestined some people for heaven and many or even most for hell The rising tide of Calvinism and its TULIP theology needs to be respectfully answered Grace for All The Arminian Dynamics of Salvation features a distinguished international panel of scholars to examine this controversy These writers address issues such as election free will grace and assurance They make compelling scriptural arguments for the universality of God's grace contending that Christ atoned for the sins of all people and that God sincerely offers forgiveness for all through Christ This book strives to uncover the biblical position on salvation We hope the reader will enjoy this stimulating series of articles on the Arminian perspective and that it will spur further writing and discussion Grace for All The Arminian Dynamics of Salvation is an updated and revised version of Grace Unlimited a 1975 collection of scholarly articles assembled by the late Clark H Pinnock of McMaster Divinity College Engaging with Barth David Gibson, Daniel Strange, 2009-03 This volume aims to engage with Karl Barth's questions and answers on a range of topics vital to Christian theology. Specifically whether by going beyond, behind or against Barth, the chapters presented here attempt to provide a contemporary orientation to certain aspects of Barth's theology that can be deemed problematic from the standpoint of historic confessional evangelicalism. Why engage with Barth? And why the particular approach of this book? The answer to the first question is that Barth's significance as arguably the greatest theologian of the twentieth century increasingly being recognized in an ongoing renaissance of international Barth scholarship means that Barth provides both opportunity and challenge for evangelicalism. There is renewed interest in the question of how evangelicals should or should not appropriate Barth. Given the sheer diversity within worldwide evangelicalism, a consensus is unlikely to be reached. Be that as it may, in a range of areas evangelical theology stands to gain from careful and critical listening to what Barth has to say.

The Doctrine of Sacred Scripture George Trumbull Ladd, 1883 Four Views on Hell William V. Crockett, 1992 What is the nature of hell? Will the wicked be destroyed by physical flames or was God using a metaphor in the New Testament? This book places four views of hell side by side and allows the reader to decide on the true nature of God's judgment. Features debates and rebuttals by editor Crockett, Zachary Hayes, John Walvoord and Clark Pinnock. Clark H. Pinnock on Biblical Authority Ray C. W. Roennfeldt, 1993 Perspectives on Science and Christian Faith, 2007 Contours of a World View Arthur Frank Holmes, 1983 Whitehead's View of Reality Charles Hartshorne, Creighton Peden, 1981 One World, Many Neighbors Perry C. Cotham, 2008 Is there a God who calls us to a discipleship of our minds? What is the uniqueness of Christianity? Do the major non-Christian worldviews and world religions have any insights or inspiration to offer those who have chosen the Christian journey? Is God at work within the various religions, drawing people to himself? Addressing provocative questions like these, Professor Perry Cotham challenges readers to re-examine long-held attitudes on life's most crucially important issues. The Ecumenist, 1969 Perspectives, 2001 A New Perspective on True Islam Farid Mahdavi-Izadi, 2000 The Doctrine of Salvation in the Sermons of Richard Hooker Cornelius C. Simut, 2005 This specialist work in historical theology deals with the doctrine of salvation in the early theology of Richard Hooker (1554-1600) from the perspective of the concept of faith and with Hooker's connections to the early English Reformers: W. Tyndale, J. Frith, R. Barnes, T. Cranmer, J. Bradford and J. Foxe in crucial teachings such as justification, sanctification, glorification, election, reprobation, the sovereignty of God and salvation of Catholics. The study proves that Hooker's theology is firstly Protestant to counter the views which picture it as Catholic and secondly Calvinist. Biblical View of Sex and Sexuality from African Perspective, 2006 American Journal of Religious Psychology and Education Granville Stanley Hall, Alexander Francis Chamberlain, 1905 Includes section Book reviews Journal of Religious Psychology, Including Its Anthropological and Sociological Aspects, 1907 Includes section Book reviews
