Big Food Simon Williams, Marion Nestle, 2017-10-02 Obesity is a global public health problem of crucial importance. Obesity rates remain high in high income countries and are rapidly increasing in low and middle income countries. Concurrently the global consumption of unhealthy products such as soft drinks and processed foods continues to rise. The ongoing expansion of multinational food and beverage companies or Big Food is a key factor behind these trends. This collection provides critical insight into the global expansion of Big Food including its incursion into low and middle income countries. It examines the changing dynamics of the global food supply and discusses how low income countries can alter the Big Food diet from the bottom up. It examines a number of issues related to Big Food marketing strategies including the way in which they advertise to youths and the rural poor. These issues are discussed in terms of their public health implications and their relation to public health activities for example soda taxes and the promotion of nutritionally healthier products. This book was originally published as a special issue of Critical Public Health. Why Marketing to Women Doesn't Work J. Darroch, 2014-07-05 This book addresses the challenges and subtleties behind marketing to women and confronts the idea that gender alone can be used as an indicator to target your market. Darroch provides practical insights into market segmentation and recommends a new approach that focuses on targeting human needs not gender in order to reach female customers. Balanced Raw Tina Leigh, 2013-06-01 The most nutritious and delicious path to shed pounds, gain energy and live robustly: the only book you'll need to live a balanced life. Mark Hyman M.D. 1 New York Times bestselling author of The Blood Sugar Solution. As people made in the image of God, we are entrusted to look after what he has created, to share in God's joy and ingenuity in making a difference for good. Ruth Valerio imaginatively draws on the Days of Creation, Genesis 1, as she relates themes of light, water, land, the seasons, other creatures, humankind, Sabbath rest and resurrection hope to matters of environmental, ethical and social concern. Foundational to Saying Yes to Life is what it means to be human and in particular to be a follower of Jesus. Voices
