Accounting, Accountants and Accountability Norman Macintosh, 2013-04-03 In the business world recent years have seen a growing acknowledgement of the value of intangible assets rather than physical assets This has precipitated a crisis in the accounting industry the accounting representations relied upon for years can no longer be taken for granted Here Norman Macintosh argues that we now need to understand accounting in a different manner Offering several different ways of looking at accounting and accountants he draws upon the work of eminent thinkers such as Barthes Baudrillard Derrida Foucault Lyotard and Bakhtin In doing this he develops revolutionary insights into the nature of accounting pioneering the introduction of contemporary poststructuralist ideas into accounting theory and practice With a wide range of examples and case studies and now available in paperback for the first time this revolutionary new work will be essential reading for academic and professional accountants along with all those with an interest in the future of accounting

Cyber Commerce Reframing Uwe G. Seebacher, 2012-12-06 The goal of this book is to create awareness for a change in mind set that we will all have to face and go through The necessity for this new mind set is being driven by the situation that a completely new business world a new reality is being created at the point where the phenomenon commonly referred to as the new economy converges with the well known old economy During the very late 1990s this new reality was being driven by an almost incredible increase in yields in the financial markets where conventional but value driven and stable stocks such as Philip Morris General Electric or Bayer did not attract as many investors as before if we can call some of them investors at all Companies in the high tech or the new market segments are all part of the new economy This new economy has created new business ideas business models and a new reality in which chief executive officers CEOs were in the mid twenties and had basically no clue as to what real business is and how much a dollar counts Now as this convergence is happening the painful reality and the business rules of the old economy get us back down to earth The CEOs become more senior business plans are validated more carefully and just having the famous com in your company name does not get you any further or lead you to any of required money
