Off Sites Bertie Ferdman, 2018-07-30 Honorable Mention ATHE's 2018 Outstanding Book Award Contextualizing the techniques and methods of the incredibly rich and vital genre of site specific performance author Bertie Ferdman traces the evolution of that term Originally used for experimental staging practices and then later also for engaged situational events site specific is no longer sufficient for the genre's many contemporary variations Using the term off site Ferdman illustrates five distinct ways artists have challenged the disciplinary framework of site specific theatre blurring the traditional boundaries between the fictional and the real changing how the audience and actor interact with each other and whether they are physically together or apart fabricating sites from physically bound conceptually constructed or virtual spaces staging live situations in real nonreal and often mediated encounters and challenging our preconceived notions of time and space Tracing the genealogy of site based work through the twentieth and twenty first centuries Ferdman outlines the theoretical groundwork for her study in the introduction Individual chapters focus on distinct types of off sites the interdisciplinary discourse of disciplinary sites the spaces of audience engagement with spectator sites the dislocation of time for temporal sites and the historiographical spaces of mapping for urban sites Ferdman examines site based work being done in the Americas by contemporary companies and artists experimenting with new forms and practices for site driven theatre Key productions discussed include Private Moment by David Levine Geyser Land by Mary Ellen Strom and Ann Carlson Jim Findlay's Dream of the Red Chamber and Lola Arias' *Mi Vida Despu*s Moving Spaces and Places Beitske Boonstra, Teresa Cutler-Broyles, Stefano Rozzoni, 2022-08-09 Moving Spaces and Places is a cross disciplinary collection about movement as a transformative experience showing how movement changes affect and percept of spaces and place and solidifies space into meaningful places Urban Sensographies Nicolas Whybrow, 2020-12-30 Urban Sensographies views the human body as a highly nuanced sensor to explore how various performance based methods can be implemented to gather usable felt data about the environment of the city as the basis for creating embodied mappings The contributors to this fascinating volume seek to draw conclusions about the constitution character and morphology of urban space as public habitable and sustainable by monitoring the reactions of the human body as a form of urban sensor This co authored book is centrally concerned as a symptom of the degree to which cities are evolving in the 21st century to examine the effects of this change on the practices and behaviours of urban dwellers This takes into account such factors as defensible retail and consumer space legacies of modernist design in the built environment the effects of surveillance technologies motorised traffic and smart phone use the integration of wild as well as domesticated nature in urban planning and living and the effects of urban pollution on the earth's climate Drawing on three years of funded practical research carried out by a multi medial team of researchers and artists this book analyses the presence and movement of the human body in urban space which is essential reading for academics and practitioners in the fields of dance film visual art sound technology digital media and performance studies

Performing Dream Homes Emily Klein, Jennifer-Scott Mobley, Jill Stevenson, 2019-01-22 This anthology explores how theatre and performance use home as the prism through which we reconcile shifts in national cultural and personal identity Whether examining parlor dramas and kitchen sink realism site specific theatre travelling tent shows domestic labor border performances fences or front yards these essays demonstrate how dreams of home are enmeshed with notions of neighborhood community politics and memory Recognizing the family home as a symbolic space that extends far beyond its walls the nine contributors to this collection study diverse English language performances from the US Ireland and Canada These scholars of theatre history dramaturgy performance cultural studies feminist and gender studies and critical race studies also consider the value of home at a time increasingly defined by crises of homelessness a moment when major cities face affordable housing shortages when debates about homeland and citizenship have dominated international elections and when conflicts and natural disasters have displaced millions Global struggles over immigration sanctuary refugee status and migrant labor make the stakes of home and homelessness ever more urgent and visible as this timely collection reveals

Walking Inside Out Tina Richardson, 2015-07-07 Walking Inside Out is the first text that attempts to merge the work of literary and artist practitioners with academics to critically explore the state of psychogeography today The collection explores contemporary psychogeographical practices shows how a critical form of walking can highlight easily overlooked urban phenomenon and examines the impact that everyday life in the city has on the individual Through a variety of case studies it offers a British perspective of international spaces from the British metropolis to the post communist European city By situating the current strand of psychogeography within its historical political and creative context along with careful consideration of the challenges it faces Walking Inside Out offers a vision for the future of the discipline

Contemporary Chinese Queer Performance Hongwei Bao, 2022-08-19 In this ground breaking study Hongwei Bao analyses queer theatre and performance in contemporary China This book documents various forms of queer performance including music film theatre and political activism in the first two decades of the twenty first century In doing so Bao argues for the importance of performance for queer identity and community formation This trailblazing work uses queer performance as an analytical lens to challenge heteronormative modes of social relations and hegemonic narratives of historiography It will be of great interest to students and scholars of theatre and performance studies gender and sexuality studies and Asian studies

The City as Subject Carolyn S. Loeb, 2022-02-24 In The City as Subject Carolyn S Loeb examines distinctive bodies of public art in Berlin legal and illegal murals painted in West Berlin in the 1970s and 1980s post reunification public sculptures and images and sites from the street art scene Her careful analyses show how these developed new architectural and spatial vocabularies that drew on the city's infrastructure and daily urban experience These works challenged mainstream urban development practices and engaged with citizen activism and with a wider civic discourse about what a city can be Loeb extends this urban focus to her examination of the extensive outdoor installation of the Berlin Wall Memorial and its mandate to represent the history of the city's division. She studies its surrounding neighborhoods to show that while the Memorial adopts many of the urban oriented vocabularies established by the earlier works of public art she examines it truncates the story of urban division which stretches beyond the Wall's existence. Loeb suggests that by embracing more multi vocal perspectives the Memorial could encourage the kind of participatory and heterogeneous construction of the city championed by the earlier works of public art.

Performing the 'New' Europe Karen Fricker, Milija Gluhovic, 2013-05-13 Bringing together the voices of scholars from Europe and North America with those of key contest stakeholders Performing the New Europe Identities Feelings and Politics in the Eurovision Song Contest argues that this popular music competition is a symbolic contact zone between European cultures an arena for European identification in which both national solidarity and participation in a European identity are confirmed and a site where cultural struggles over the meanings frontiers and limits of Europe are enacted. This exciting collection explores the ways in which European artists perform disavow and contest their racial national and sexual identities in the Eurovision Song Contest ESC and asks difficult questions about European inclusions and exclusions the contest reflects. It suggests the ESC as an ever evolving network of peoples and places transcending both historical and geographical boundaries of Europe that brings into being new understandings of the relationship between culture space and identities.

Whybrow, 2014-08-19 Performing Cities is an edited volume of contributions by a range of internationally renowned academics and performance makers from across the globe each one covering a particular city and examining it from the dynamic perspectives of performances occurring in cities and the city itself as performance.

International Journal of China Studies ,2013 Dancing Mosaic Mohd. Anis Md. Nor, 2012 Fair Play - Art, Performance and Neoliberalism J. Harvie, 2013-08-29 This book asks what is the quality of participation in contemporary art and performance. Has it been damaged by cultural policies which have entrepreneurialized artists cut arts funding and cultivated corporate philanthropy. Has it been fortified by crowdfunding pop ups and craftsmanship. And how can it help us to understand social welfare.

The Arizona Quarterly ,2013 African American Review ,2011 Entablado Sir Anril Pineda Tiatco, 2015 A collection of essays this book attempts to continue the conversation on theater and performance studies in the context of Philippine scholarship. In the discussions the trope of entablado is used as a central idiom. Here the use of entablado is twofold. First entablado refers to its literal meaning as a space on which a performance takes place. The space of the performance however is not only confined to the walls of an auditorium. It may be in a street a foyer of a huge cultural landmark a river or a school auditorium. Also the space may not necessarily be a location exclusively for an artistic performance. It may be a space where people gather for the Divine for entertainment for a political protest or for an academic conversation. Second entablado is used here as a signpost for both ambivalence and exact possibility Borrowing the Hispanic origin of the term entablar entablado may be translated into English as to strike to begin or to initiate The ambivalence is in the concept s determinism which also has Hispanic origins that seems to be suggestive of a need for a discipline in Philippine academia where the starting point is this space of entablado theater and performance Page 4 of cover Environment & Planning ,2012
