Notes from the Life of a Total Genius Stacey Matson, 2016-08-30 A new year a new controversy and another way to make Kennedy mad Arthur Bean is back With Robbie in another city thank goodness for texting and Kennedy as his co editor of the school newspaper Arthur s final year at Terry Fox Jr High is off to a rocky start A chance to produce his own play gives him visions of fame and finally the respect he is sure he deserves but that's all dashed when the new principal challenges the content of Arthur's play. Never one to take no for an answer, Arthur uses his wit and his own column in the school paper to skewer censorship. He so irks the principal that now the grad prom is in danger of being cancelled much to Kennedy's dismay. In typical fashion, Arthur won't back down even when Kennedy pleads with him. Torn between the wishes of his fellow students and his own best chance for fame, what will Arthur decide? Curtas Extraordinarios! What differentiates a man from a boy is the way he lives. A man has a vision for his life, is a team player, works, has the courage to take a minority position, and is a protector. These are the five marks of a man. They're a primal code that every great man in history has aggressively pursued. Drawing from his own experience and the lives of others, pastor Brian Tome calls on men to examine their mindset and actions, assume responsibility for their place in the world, step into a new reality, one defined by strength, purpose, and a code of honor. It's time to take steps in the direction of the adventure of a fully realized manhood that honors God, respects women, elevates others, and works purposefully for an end greater than your own satisfaction or pleasure. Murder is Final, Fortune's Faux
