Architectural Conservation in Europe and the Americas John H. Stubbs, Emily G. Makaš, 2011-05-04 From such well known and long vexed sites as the Athenian Acropolis to more contemporary locales like the Space Age Modernist capital city of Brasília the conflicting and not always neatly resolvable forces that bear upon preservation are addressed as clearly and thoughtfully as the general reader could hope for New York Review of Books an astonishing feat of research compilation and synthesis Context The book delivers the first major survey concerning the conservation of cultural heritage in both Europe and the Americas Architectural Conservation in Europe and the Americas serves as a convenient resource for professionals students and anyone interested in the field Following the acclaimed Time Honored this book presents contemporary practice on a country by country and region by region basis facilitating comparative analysis of similarities and differences The book stresses solutions in architectural heritage protection and the contexts in which they were developed Library Journal, 2004 Includes beginning Sept 15 1954 and on the 15th of each month Sept May a special section School library journal ISSN 0000 0035 called Junior libraries 1954 May 1961 Also issued separately Code of Federal Regulations United States. Department of Agriculture, United States. Department of the Treasury, 1991 Special edition of the Federal register containing a codification of documents of general applicability and future effect as of April 1 with ancillaries The Cultural Turn in International Aid Sophia Labadi, 2019-09-12 The Cultural Turn in International Aid is one of the first volumes to analyse a wide and comprehensive range of issues related to culture and international aid in a critical and constructive manner Assessing why international aid is provided for cultural projects rather than for other causes the book also considers whether and how donor funded cultural projects can address global challenges including post conflict recovery building peace and security strengthening resilience or promoting human rights With contributions from experts around the globe this volume critically assesses the impact of international aid including the diverse power relations and inequalities it creates and the interests it serves at international national and local levels The book also considers projects that have failed and analyses the reasons for their failure drawing out lessons learnt and considering what could be done better in the future Contributors to the volume also consider the influence of donors in privileging some forms of culture over others creating or maintaining specific memories identities and interpretations of history and their reasons for doing so These rich discussions are contextualised through a historical section which considers the definitions approaches and discourses related to culture and aid at international and regional levels Providing consideration of manifold manifestations of culture The Cultural Turn in International Aid will be of great interest to scholars students and practitioners It will be particularly useful for those engaged in the study of heritage anthropology international aid and development international relations humanitarian studies community development cultural studies politics or sociology Cultural Tourism Hilary du Cros, Bob McKercher, 2020-04-19 Cultural Tourism remains the only book to bridge the gap between cultural tourism and cultural and heritage management The first edition illustrated how heritage and tourism goals can be integrated in a management and marketing framework to produce sustainable cultural tourism The current edition takes this further to base the discussion of cultural tourism in the theory and practice of cultural and heritage management CM and CHM under the understanding that for tourism to thrive a balanced approach to the resource base it uses must be maintained An umbrella approach to cultural tourism represents a unique feature of the book proposing solutions to achieve an optimal outcome for all sectors Reflecting the many important developments in the field this new edition has been completely revised and updated in the following ways New content on increasingly relevant topics including sustainability climate change the threat of de globalization overtourism and social media New sections on experience creation accessibility and inclusivity as well as expanded material on creative industries and new management challenges New international case studies and tried and tested assignment exercises have been added to every chapter Written by experts in both tourism and cultural heritage management this book will enable professionals and students to gain a better understanding of their own and each other s roles in achieving sustainable cultural tourism It provides a blueprint for producing top quality long term cultural tourism products
