Chinese foreign marriage especially those where Chinese women marry foreign nationals are disapproved of male foreign nationals being seen as having a propensity to infidelity deception violence and taking advantage of Chinese women The book contrasts the portrayal of Chinese foreign marriage with the reality and with the depiction of Chinese Chinese marriage where many of the same problems apply Overall the book sheds much light on changing social processes and on current imaginings of China's place in the world

The World Next Door Rajini Srikanth, 2004 This book grows out of the question At this particular moment of tense geopolitics and inter linked economies what insights can South Asian American writing offer us about living in the world South Asian American literature with its focus on the multiple geographies and histories of the global dispersal of South Asians pulls back from a close up view of the United States to reveal a wider landscape of many nations and peoples South Asian American poets novelists and playwrights depict the nation as simultaneously discrete and entwined with the urgencies of places as diverse as Bangladesh Sri Lanka India Burma Pakistan and Trinidad Drawing on the cosmopolitan sensibility of scholars like Anthony Appiah Vinay Dharwadker Martha Nussbaum Bruce Robbins and Amartya Sen this book exhorts North American residents to envision connectedness with inhabitants of other lands The world out there arrives next door

The Cowgirl Princess and Starwalker Dianne Brown, 2012-07-13 Who could have known that this girl child seeded in a little cabin at a Columbine resort on her mothers honeymoon would carry stardust in her veins from a stellar system so very far away in the universe It would have been impossible at that time for anyone to know that in this mortal flesh walked an entity of high spiritual esteem My mother named me Diana after the goddess of the hunt the forest and the beloved moon which is merely 250 thousand miles away Precious precious and set aside kept safe for these days I was tenderly wrapped in mythology and poetry and tucked in nightly by my mother who showed me the moon and the man who lived there This magical lady told me her firstborn that I was made of moonbeams and stardust There is no doubt in my mind that I was programmed by Lorine's love of poetry and stories Her childlike belief in the truth of fairytales and the magic of rhyme and words strung together like precious jewels in a royal necklace was impressed into my DNA This caused certain dendrons to lie down and give way to those that would stand tall and carry verse and prose through my soul like a great river I have kept my promise to Lorine I have written her story The Cowgirl Princess and Starwalker using her collection of journals and photographs and of course I wove it all together with my own especially special collection of memories and lots and lots of stardust and tears

The Mother's Manual Audrye S.
