MOSBY'S WAR REMINISCENCES AND STUART'S CAVALRY CAMPAIGNS JOHN SINGLETON. MOSBY, 2018

Mosby's War Reminiscences, and Stuart's Cavalry Campaigns John Singleton Mosby, 1887 Mosby's War Reminiscences: Stuart's Cavalry Campaigns John Singleton Mosby, In April 1861 I was attending court at Abingdon Va when I met a person who had just stepped out of the telegraph office who informed me that tremendous tidings were passing over the wires Going in I inquired of the operator what it was who told me that Lincoln had issued a proclamation calling out troops Fort Sumter had fallen two days before The public mind was already strained to a high pitch of excitement and it required only a spark to produce an explosion The indignation aroused by the President s proclamation spread like fire on a prairie and the laws became silent in the midst of arms People of every age sex and condition were borne away on the tide of excited feeling that swept over the land The home of Gov John B Floyd who had resigned as secretary of war under Buchanan was at Abingdon I went to his house and told him the news He immediately issued a call to arms which resounded like the roll of Ziska s drum among the mountains of southwestern Virginia Many of the most influential families in that region were descendants of the men who had fought under Morgan and Campbell at Eutaw Springs and King s Mountain Their military spirit was inflamed by stirring appeals to the memories of the deeds their sires had done Women too came forward to inspire men with a spirit of heroic self sacrifice and a devotion that rivalled the maidens of Carthage and Saragossa All the pride and affection that Virginians had felt in the traditions of the government which their ancestors had made and the great inheritance which they had bequeathed were lost in the overpowering sentiment of sympathy with the people who were threatened with invasion It is a mistake to suppose that the Virginia people went to war in obedience to any decree of their State commanding them to go On the contrary the people were in a state of armed revolution before the State had acted in its corporate capacity I went along with the flood like everybody else A few individuals here and there attempted to breast the storm of passion and appeared like Virgil s ship wrecked mariners Rari nantes in surgite vasto Their fate did not encourage others to follow their example and all that they did was to serve like ocean wrecks to illuminate the storm In anticipation of these events a cavalry company had for some months been in process of organization which I had joined as a private This company known as the Washington Mounted Rifles was immediately called together by its commanding officer Capt William E Jones Capt Jones was a graduate of West Point and had resigned some years before from the United States army He was a stern disciplinarian and devoted to duty Under a rugged manner and impracticable temper he had a heart that beat with warm impulses To his inferiors in rank he was just and kind but too much inclined to cross the wishes and criticise the orders of his superiors He had been a classmate of Stonewall Jackson at the military academy and related to me many anecdotes of Jackson s piety as well as his eccentricities He was a hard swearer and a few days after the battle of Bull Run he told me that he was at Jackson s headquarters and Jackson got very much provoked at something a soldier had done

when Jones said Jackson let me cuss him for you He fell in battle with Gen Hunter in the valley of Virginia in June 1864 We went into barracks at Abingdon and began drilling Mosby's War Reminiscences, and Stuart's Cavalry Campaigns John Singleton Mosby,1887 Mosby's War Reminiscences And Stuart Cavalry Campaigns John S.
