Parenting in the Pandemic Rebecca Lowenhaupt, George Theoharis, 2021-05-01 In March of 2020 our daily lives were upended by the COVID pandemic and subsequent school closures With work and school shifting online a new and ongoing set of demands has been placed on parents as school moved to online virtual and hybrid models of learning Families need to balance professional responsibilities with parenting and supporting their children s education As education professors we find ourselves in a particular position as our expertise collides with the reality of schooling our own children in our homes during a global pandemic This book focuses on the experiences of education faculty who navigate this relationship as pandemic professionals and pandemic parents In this collection of personal essays we explore parenting in the pandemic among education professors Through our stories we share our perspectives on this moment of upheaval as we find ourselves confronting practical and impractical aspects of long held theories about what school could be seeing up close and personally the pedagogy our children endure online watching education policy go awry in our own living rooms and kitchens and bathrooms making high stakes decisions about our children s and other children s access to opportunity and trying to maintain our careers at the same time In this collision of personal and professional identities we find ourselves reflecting on fundamental questions about the purpose and design of schooling the value of our work as education professors and the precious relationships we hope to maintain with our children through this difficult time Praise for Parenting in the Pandemic Lowenhaupt and Theoharis have curated a magnificent collection of essays that captures the hopes fears tensions and possibilities of parenting in a time of crisis A gift to parents and educators everywhere as we continue to process and reflect on what the pandemic has taught us about what it means to educate others and perhaps through a renewed imagination our very own children Sonya Douglass Horsford Teachers College Columbia University In this powerful collection of essays we have a rare window into how the personal and professional worlds of academics collided during the COVID 19 pandemic What emerges from these reflections is an intimate portrait of the longstanding tensions in our lives as public intellectuals and parents that have long burned as embers but are now set ablaze by the public health economic and educational crisis we have lived through during the last year Reading these essays will help us to see questions of education policy and practice in a new more personal light Matthew Kraft Brown University 1,001 Best Low-Carb Recipes Sue Spitler, 2015-12-21 A redesigned and reformatted version of a title now returning to print 1 001 Best Low Carb Recipes is an extensive collection of great dishes for the health conscious home cook looking for more low carb options Enlarged and beautifully repackaged this book features a broader more useful format that sits flat when open for maximum convenience A 2014 randomized trial by the National Institutes of Health found that participants on a low carb diet experienced greater weight loss than those on a low fat diet The prevalence of Celiac Disease and gluten sensitivity has increased our interest in gluten free recipes while the popular paleo diet has led us to avoid dishes bloated with carbs Above all the recipes in the cookbook prove that a low carb diet does not have to be bland or boring Recipes include Caribbean Potato Salad Sesame Shrimp Stir Fry and some surprises like Black Bottom Pie and Soft Molasses Cookies The award winning 1 001 cookbook series which has sold 750 000 copies across all titles has earned its popularity through carefully curated and tested recipes as well as by featuring complete nutritional data This book is the perfect compendium for those looking for a wide variety of gluten free and paleo friendly meals
