Paul Huebener, 2024-05-14 Sleep and the lack of it is a public obsession and an enormous everyday quandary Troubled sleep tends to be seen as an individual problem and personal responsibility to be fixed by better habits and tracking gadgets but the reality is more complicated Sleep is a site of politics culture and power In Restless in Sleep Country Paul Huebener pulls back the covers on cultural representations of sleep to show how they are entangled with issues of colonialism homelessness consumer culture technology and privacy the exploitation of labour and the effects of the Covid 19 pandemic Even though it almost entirely evades direct experience sleep is the subject of a variety of potent narratives each of which can serve to clarify and shape its role in our lives In Canada cultural visions of slumber circulate through such diverse forms as mattress commercials billboards comic books memoirs experimental poetry and bedtime story phone apps By guiding us through this imaginative landscape Huebener shows us how to develop a critical literacy of sleep Lying down and closing our eyes is an act that carries surprisingly high stakes going beyond individual sleep troubles Restless in Sleep Country illuminates the idea of sleep as a crucial site of inequity struggle and gratification Dead Man Working Carl Cederstrom, Peter Fleming, 2012-05-25 Capitalism has become strange Ironically while the age of work seems to have come to an end working has assumed a total presence a worker s society in the worst sense of the term where everyone finds themselves obsessed with it So what does the worker tell us today I feel drained empty dead This book tells the story of the dead man working It follows this figure through the daily tedium of the office to the humiliating mandatory team building exercise to awkward encounters with the funky boss who pretends to hate capitalism and tells you to be authentic In this society the experience of work is not of dying but neither of living It is one of a living death And yet the dead man working is nevertheless compelled to wear the exterior signs of life to throw a pretty smile feign enthusiasm and make a half baked joke When the corporation has colonized life itself even our dreams the question of escape becomes ever more pressing ever more desperate

Unstressable Mo Gawdat, Egypt, Alice Law, 2024-04-30 Mo Gawdat is an engineer What most of us see as insurmountable problems he sees as systems overloads to tackle and solve Unstressable breaks stress into inputs and effects classifying human stressors as stress to the mind stress to emotions stress to the body and stress to the soul Once classified Gawdat and co author Alice Law show readers how stress can be predicted and once predicted prevented Unstressable illuminates for readers how most of us deal with the unpleasant anxiety producing and even miserable or tragic events in our lives stress is always a by product leading directly to inability to cope health problems and cratered confidence Gawdat and Law guide readers to both heart centred and science based solutions They ll train readers to Develop habits and attitudes of listening and learning that limit stress Learn the language of de stressing mind emotions body and soul Respond not react Release self criticism insomnia and lethargy Increase energy focus and confidence Unstressable is a handbook for those who understand that stress isn t what happens to you it s how you handle what happens to you It s a practical and rounded approach to an ever increasing modern day problem Maui-of-a-thousand-tricks Katharine Luomala, 1949
