Tagg, 2014-01-21 This timely book examines language on social media sites including Facebook and Twitter Studies from leading language researchers and experts on social media explore how social media is having an impact on how we relate to each other the communities we live in and the way we present a sense of self in twenty first century society

The Breakup 2.0 Ilana M. Gershon, 2010-12-15 A few generations ago college students showed their romantic commitments by exchanging special objects rings pins varsity letter jackets Pins and rings were handy telling everyone in local communities that you were spoken for and when you broke up the absence of a ring let everyone know you were available again Is being Facebook official really more complicated or are status updates just a new version of these old tokens Many people are now fascinated by how new media has affected the intricacies of relationships and their dissolution People often talk about Facebook and Twitter as platforms that have led to a seismic shift in transparency and over sharing What are the new rules for breaking up These rules are argued over and mocked in venues from the New York Times to lamebook.com but well thought out and informed considerations of the topic are rare Ilana Gershon was intrigued by the degree to which her students used new media to communicate important romantic information such as it's over She decided to get to the bottom of the matter by interviewing seventy two people about how they use Skype texting voice mail instant messaging Facebook and cream stationery to end relationships She opens up the world of romance as it is conducted in a digital milieu offering insights into the ways in which different media influence behavior beliefs and social mores Above all this full fledged ethnography of Facebook and other new tools is about technology and communication but it also tells the reader a great deal about what college students expect from each other when breaking up and from their friends who are the spectators or witnesses to the ebb and flow of their relationships The Breakup 2.0 is accessible and riveting

The Oxford Handbook of Cyberpsychology Alison Attrill-Smith, Chris Fullwood, Melanie Keep, Daria J. Kuss, 2019 The internet is so central to everyday life that it is impossible to contemplate life without it From finding romance to conducting business receiving health advice shopping banking and gaming the internet opens up a world of possibilities to people across the globe Yet for all its positive attributes it is also an environment where we witness the very worst of human behaviour cybercrime election interference fake news and trolling being just a few examples What is it about this unique environment that can make people behave in ways they wouldn't contemplate in real life Understanding the psychological processes underlying and influencing the thinking interpretation and behaviour associated with this online interconnectivity is the core premise of Cyberpsychology The Oxford Handbook of Cyberpsychology explores a wide range of cyberpsychological processes and activities through the research and writings of some of the world's leading cyberpsychology experts The book is divided into eight sections covering topics as varied as online research methods self presentation and impression management technology across the lifespan interaction and interactivity online groups and communities social media health and technology video gaming and cybercrime and cybersecurity The Oxford Handbook of Cyberpsychology will be important reading for those who have only recently discovered the discipline as well as more seasoned cyberpsychology researchers and teachers Digital Transformation and Global Society Daniel A.

Competition Law in Europe Marc Wiggers,Robin Struijlaart,Joost Dibbitts,2023-07-14 Digital competition a term and concept that has risen to the forefront of competition law may be viewed as both promising and cautionary on the one hand it brings the promises of increased speed efficiency and objectivity and on the other it entails potential pitfalls such as hard to identify pathways to unfair pricing dominant positions and their potential abuse restriction of choice and abuse of personal data Accordingly jurisdictions around the world are taking measures to deal with the phenomenon In this concise but thoroughly researched book both informative and practical lawyers from two prominent firms with specialised digital competition teams take stock and examine the state of digital competition in the enforcement practices of six competition authorities in Europe most of these forerunners in the field of digital competition policy and enforcement The competition authorities surveyed are those of the European Union the United Kingdom France Germany the Netherlands and Belgium For each an overview spanning the period from 2012 to mid 2022 but including as many landmark cases as possible up to and including December 2022 includes not only landmark cases in which digital technologies have had a significant impact on the competition law outcome but also guidance documents such as speeches policy statements industry surveys and research reports Activities and enforcement practices of the various authorities include the following and more degree of activity focus of the activity enforcement styles enforcement instruments visible effectiveness of enforcement and important insights and outlooks Each overview contains separate chapters on cartel prohibition the prohibition of abuse of a dominant position and merger control Additional chapters partially written by guest authors who are all without a doubt true thought leaders Tristan Byrne Giuseppe Colangelo Ai Deng Teodora Groza Daniel M ndrescu Wolf Sauter Thibault Schrpel and Gareth Shier evaluate the similarities and differences in the enforcement practices and the positive and negative effects of digital competition in the jurisdictions investigated the economic context the most important game changers and a concluding chapter offers recommendations An indispensable guide to quickly and accessibly acquiring in depth knowledge of competition law in the digital sector this matchless volume is a must read for any practitioner or academic who encounters competition law related to digital markets The dilemmas and challenges of the new competition law reality which is here already like it or not are clearly explained here for the benefit of regulators academics policymakers judges in house counsel and lawyers specialising in competition law and intellectual property law

China's One Belt One Road Initiative and Private International Law Poomintr Sooksripaisarnkit, Sai Ramani Garimella, 2018-05-16 The concept of the One Belt One Road initiative OBOR was raised by the President of the People's Republic of China in October 2013 The OBOR comprises the Silk Road Economic Belt and the 21st Century Maritime Silk Road encompassing over 60 countries from Asia to Europe via Southeast Asia South Asia Central Asia West Asia and the Middle East The overall objective of the OBOR is to encourage the economic prosperity of the countries along the Belt and Road and regional economic cooperation encourage mutual learning between different civilizations and promoting peace and development However countries along the Belt and Road routes of the OBOR project have diverse laws and legal systems It is not difficult to envisage problems relating to harmonisation of laws and rules in trade between countries along the OBOR routes or otherwise These problems can potentially cut through the core of the very objective of the OBOR itself Integration in China's One Belt One Road Initiative explores possible

challenges to the success of the OBOR arising from the situational interface of diversity of laws with the focus primarily on issues associated with private international law It shows the latest state of knowledge on the topic and will be of interest to researchers academics policymakers and students interested in private international law issues pertaining to the OBOR routes as well as private international law in general Asian studies and the politics of international trade
