Cyber Monday Near Me:

30 Before 30 Marina Shifrin, 2018-07-24 A charming relatable and hilarious collection of essays documenting a young woman's attempt to accomplish thirty life goals before turning thirty. Something was nagging Marina Shifrin. As a freshly minted adult with student loan payments, a barely hospitable New York apartment, a real job she hated that paid her enough to get by, if she also worked two other jobs, something needed to change. Over a few bottles of Two Buck Chuck, Marina and her friend each made lists of thirty things they'd do before the age of thirty. The first thing on Marina's list was Quit My Shitty Job. So she did, and just like that, the List powered her through her twenties. In 30 Before 30, Marina takes readers through her list and shares personal stories about achieving those goals. Ranging in scope from the simple Ride A Bike Over the Brooklyn Bridge, Donate Hair, to the life-changing Move to A Different Country, Become internet Famous, each story shows readers that we don't all have it figured out, and that's okay. But for Marina, she did become internet famous: a viral video of her quitting her job after moving to Asia has nearly 19 million views on YouTube, and now writes for Comedy Central's hit show Midnight. It is also an in-demand stand-up and had a very popular Modern Love column published in the New York Times. None of that would have happened if she didn't start her list that night. Thank you, Two Buck Chuck. Told with humor and heart, 30 Before 30 will entertain, motivate, and challenge readers to get out of their comfort zones and live their best lives.

Me and We Leonard Sweet, 2014-09-16 When Christians answer the clarion call to be missional, too often it is primarily to feel good or to grow in their own faith. But ultimately we remain unsatisfied because in the end it's still about me, my church, my faith, my salvation. Then sometimes inspiration dries up. We forget that Jesus is the head of the Church, which exists at God's pleasure and disposal. God is birthing a new Social Gospel meant to reclaim mission and justice ministries as prime directives for the Church, and not with the naive thinking of the 19th or 20th centuries. What are the characteristics of this new Social Gospel? There is an expectation that mission is with and not for others. There is an acknowledgement that tolerance is not a dirty word, and we have to find a peaceable way to live in our intercultural world. It carries the Wesleyan impulse to change the world by working to build God's kingdom in this world. It offers the grace and salvation of Christ to those in need, believing that none are free unless all are free. It means that we feed the hungry, educate the poor, and equip the powerless in tangible ways.
