Karim, 2007-06-06 The conference proceedings of International Conference on Industrial Electronics Technology not only the reviewing submissions and registration processes but also the actual conference. Conference participants, authors, presenters, and attendees only needed an internet connection and sound available on their computers in order to be able to contribute and participate in this international ground-breaking conference. The on-line structure of this high-quality event allowed academic professionals and industry participants to contribute work and attend world-class technical presentations based on rigorously refereed submissions live without the need for investing significant travel funds or time out of the office. Suffice to say that CISSE received submissions from more than 50 countries for whose researchers this opportunity presented a much more affordable, dynamic, and well-planned event to attend and submit their work to versus a classic on-the-ground conference. The CISSE conference audio room provided superb audio even over low-speed internet connections, the ability to display PowerPoint presentations, and cross-platform compatibility; the conferencing software runs on Windows, Mac, and any other operating system that supports Java. In addition, the conferencing system allowed for an unlimited number of participants, which in turn granted CISSE the opportunity to allow all participants to attend all presentations as opposed to limiting the number of available seats for each session. The implemented conferencing technology, starting with the submission review system and ending with the online conferencing capability, allowed CISSE to conduct a very high-quality fulfilling event for all participants.
