Although Google Business Profile has been around for a long time, it has grown in its importance as more users use search engines to find information about a local business, even more so during the COVID 19 pandemic. The fact that the word searching is now interchangeable with the word Googling Google is the leading search engine with around 5.4 billion daily searches and a 92% market share. In fact, nearly half of all Google searches (46%) include local intent with phrases such as "near me" or a city or neighborhood after the search term. The statistics surrounding Google Business Profiles are impressive. Over 90% of people read Google Business Profile reviews before contacting a local business, and over half of profiles receive over 1,000 views per month. Nearly half of businesses receive appointment requests through their Google Business Profile, and the profile can be attributed to 91% of weekday calls to local businesses. With 87% of users performing daily Google searches for local businesses, it's clear that having a Google Business Profile is crucial. Reviews are important too, as 65% of users will leave a review if they have a positive experience.
