Theater of Capital Alisa Zhulina, 2024-01-15 Reads canonical works of modern drama in relation to the economic ideas of their era Emerging amid the turbulent rise of market finance and wider socioeconomic changes modern drama enacted vital critiques of art and life under capitalism Alisa Zhulina shows how fin de si cle playwrights such as Henrik Ibsen August Strindberg Anton Chekhov George Bernard Shaw and Gerhart Hauptmann interrogated the meaning of this newly coined economic concept Acutely aware of their complicity in the system they sought to challenge these playwrights staged economic questions as moral and political concerns using their plays to explore the theories of Adam Smith Karl Marx and Friedrich Engels Max Weber and others within the boundaries of bourgeois theater Theater of Capital Modern Drama and Economic Life reveals the prescient and unsettling visions of life in a new financial and societal reality in now canonical plays such as A

Doll's House, Miss Julie and The Cherry Orchard as well as in lesser known and long overlooked works. Hockley, 2012-05-23 Since Jung and Film was first published in 2001 Jungian writing on the moving image in film and television has accelerated. Jung and Film II: The Return provides new contributions from authors across the globe willing to tackle the broader issues of film production and consumption, the audience and the place of film culture in our lives. As well as chapters dealing with particular film makers such as Maya Derren and films such as Birth, The Piano, The Wrestler and Breaking the Wave, there is also a unique chapter co-written by documentary film maker Tom Hurvitz and New York Jungian analyst Margaret Klenck. Other areas of discussion include the way in which psychological issues come under scrutiny in many movies, the various themes that concern Jungian writers on film, how Jungian ideas on psychological personality types can be applied in fresh ways to analyse a variety of characters. The book also includes a glossary to help readers with Jungian words and concepts. Jung and Film II is not only a welcome companion to the first volume, it is an important stand alone work essential for all academics and students of analytical psychology as well as film media and cultural studies. James Bond

Will Return Claire Hines, Terence McSweeney, Stuart Joy, 2024-01-09 For over six decades James Bond has been a fixture of global culture, universally recognizable by the films' combination of action set pieces, sex, political intrigue and outrageous gadgetry. But as the British Empire entered the final stages of collapse, as the Cold War wound down and the War on Terror began, and as the visions of masculinity and femininity the series presented began to strike many viewers as outdated, the Bond formula has adapted to the changing times. Spanning the franchise's entire history from Sean Connery's iconic swagger to Daniel Craig's rougher, more visceral interpretation of the superspy, James Bond Will Return offers both academic readers and fans a comprehensive view of the series's transformations against the backdrop of real world geopolitical intrigue and sweeping social changes. Leading scholars consider each of the twenty-five films in the series, showing how and why Bond has changed and what elements of the formula have stood the test of time. Each chapter examines a single film from a distinct position, giving readers a full picture of the variety and breadth of the longest running series in cinema history. Close formal readings, production histories, tracings of the political, social and historical influences, analyses of the series' use of then new filmmaking technologies, reflections on the star personas that have been built around the character, these and many more approaches combine to produce a wide ranging view of the James Bond film franchise. Essential reading for Bond scholars and aficionados alike. James Bond Will Return brings out the many surprising complexities of an iconic character. Pen to
