Tinderbox Lynn Alsup, 2025-07-30

Lynn watched her beloved Clare, newly adopted from Haiti, crawl the house in a frantic search for her lost mother. Preschool Clare, enchanted with belly laughs and shining smiles, also thrashed and wailed in her room as Lynn crouched on her own bed, pillow clutched over her head. Her past trauma triggered a pre-teen trip to Haiti, brought sunshine, ruby red hibiscus blooms, and the music of Haitian Creole. Back at home, Clare shattered mirrors into shards on the subway tiles of their bathroom. And just before her thirteenth birthday, as she and Lynn walked hand in hand through their neighborhood, Clare calmly detailed her plan to die. Over the next years, Lynn and her family walked through psychiatric hospitals along the Appalachian Trail and in and out of residential placements, marriage, faith, and sanity barely surviving the journey. But then Lynn learned about fetal alcohol spectrum disorder (FASD), a source of neurodivergence in one in twenty American children, and discovered the FASSETS Neurobehavioral Model, a strengths-based approach to celebrating and accommodating neurodiversity. It was a discovery that transformed them all. At times joyous, at times harrowing, but always full of love, Tinderbox is a mother's story of brokenness, unrelenting resilience, and hope.

The Fun Master Jeff Seitzer, 2025-07-30

A self-involved academic struggling to cope with his own neurological problems, Jeff could hardly take care of himself, let alone a child with special needs, when his son Ethan was born. But despite multiple surgeries, hospitalizations, serious breathing and swallowing problems, hearing loss, and a challenging social environment in his first months of life, Ethan thrived. All the while, teaching Jeff to take things as they came. And eight years later, the arrival from China of adopted baby sister Penelope took Jeff's on-the-job training to a whole new level. Ethan's instinct for fun proved the perfect complement to Jeff's determination to live life fully. He died too young, but not before he. Penelope and their mother Janet taught Jeff that the true path to happiness was putting other people's needs before his own and living in the moment rather than trying to control it.

The Social Labs Revolution Zaid Hassan, 2014-02-03

Current responses to our most pressing societal challenges, from poverty to ethnic conflict to climate change, are not working. These problems are incredibly dynamic and complex, involving an ever-shifting array of factors, actors, and circumstances. They demand a highly fluid and adaptive approach, yet we address them by devising fixed, long-term plans. Social labs, says Zaid Hassan, are a dramatically more effective response. Social labs bring together a diverse group of stakeholders not to create yet another five-year plan, but to develop a portfolio of prototype solutions, test those solutions in the real world, use the data to further refine them, and test them again. Hassan builds on a decade of experience, as well as drawing from cutting-edge research in complexity science, networking theory, and sociology, to explain the core principles and daily functioning of social labs, using examples of pioneering labs from around the world He offers a new generation of problem solvers an effective practical and exciting new vision and guide Hello, Nausea. How Are You Today?
