The SAGE Guide to Writing in Corrections Steven Hougland, Jennifer M. Allen, 2019-12-02 As part of the SAGE Guide to Writing series, The SAGE Guide to Writing in Corrections 1e by Steven Hougland and Jennifer Allen focuses on teaching students how to write in the academic setting while introducing them to a number of other professional writings specific to the correctional profession such as the pre-sentence investigation report, contact sheets, court status reports, incident reports, rehabilitation and therapy. Covering correctional institutions as well as community corrections, the goal is to interweave professional and technical writing, academic writing, and information literacy with the result being a stronger, more confident report writer and student in corrections. This text will be a concise supplemental writing book in courses focused on writing in the criminal justice discipline, report writing, or in introductory corrections courses. It is part of a series of books on this topic that will span criminal justice, policing, corrections, and research methods.

Building Genre Knowledge Christine Tardy, 2009-07-15 Adopting an interdisciplinary perspective, BUILDING GENRE KNOWLEDGE provides a unique look into the processes of building genre knowledge while offering a dynamic theory of those processes that is inclusive of both monolingual and multilingual writers, a necessary move in today's linguistically diverse classrooms. It will therefore be of great interest to researchers and practitioners in both first and second language writing studies.
