AI-Enhanced Literacy Mary Ehrenworth, Philip Seyfried, 2025. Teach students to use AI tools in a thoughtful, critical, and ethical way during reading and writing instruction. The relationship between AI and literacy education isn't simple. Every tool that makes work more efficient also requires careful consideration. In this measured look at the powerful capabilities of artificial intelligence, literacy experts Mary Ehrenworth and Philip Seyfried take K-12 teachers on a tour of what's possible when AI tools are seamlessly integrated into literacy teaching and learning. Each chapter examines AI's potential to expand literacy instruction, deepen student understanding, and make the teacher's role more interesting and satisfying. You'll find both theoretical approaches and practical examples to help you understand and feel at ease with current AI tools. Create AI-enhanced spaces in your classroom. Harness AI as a writing coach. Develop students' reading comprehension with digital texts and tools. Extend multilingual competencies using AI-powered translation tools. Build and use engaging text sets. Teach students to think critically about and with AI. Using AI tools to improve reading and writing instruction can feel overwhelming, but it is a critical skill for today's literacy teachers. AI-Enhanced Literacy illuminates a strategic and successful path toward wise and seamless AI use, your own and your students'. Educating for Empathy Nicole Mirra, 2018-08-31. Recipient of the 2019 NCTE David H. Russell Award. Educating for Empathy presents a compelling framework for thinking about the purpose and practice of literacy education in a politically polarized world Mirra proposes a model of critical civic empathy that encourages secondary ELA teachers to consider how issues of power and inequity play out in the literacy classroom and how to envision literacy practices as a means of civic engagement The book reviews core elements of ELA instruction response to literature classroom discussion research and digital literacy and demonstrates how these activities can be adapted to foster critical thinking and empathetic perspectives among students Chapters depict teachers and students engaging in this transformative learning offer concrete strategies for the classroom and pose questions to guide school communities in collaborative reflection Book Features Responds to our current divisive political climate to explore what empathy really means and what it takes to teach for it Explores an innovative concept of critical civic empathy that goes beyond simply being nice to others and emphasizes making positive changes in government and society Provides an engaging synthesis of theory and practice that shows how foundational ELA activities can be used to support the development of empathy and civic engagement Focuses on both personal empathy seeing other points of view and global empathy understanding the power of position and privilege in social interactions Includes real world examples from a variety of schools and discussion questions at the end of each chapter Reading for Meaning Harvey F.
