Performing Consumers Global Capital And Its Theatrical Seductions:

Performing Consumers Maurya Wickstrom, 2006-08-21 Performing Consumers is an exploration of the way in which brands insinuate themselves into the lives of ordinary people who encounter them at branded superstores Looking at our performative desire to try on otherness Maurya Wickstrom employs five American brandscapes to serve as case studies Ralph Lauren Niketown American Girl Place Disney store and The Lion King and The Forum Shops at Caesar s Palace in Las Vegas In this post product era each builds for the performer consumer an intensely pleasurable somatic experience of merging into the brand and reappearing as the brand or the brand s fictional meanings To understand this embodiment as the way that capital is producing subjectivity as an aspect of itself Wickstrom casts a wide net drawing on the history of capital s relationship with theatre political developments in the United States recent work in political science philosophy and performance studies An adventurous study of theatrical indeterminacy and material culture Performing Consumers brilliantly takes corporate culture to task

Performance Studies in Canada Laura Levin, Marlis Schweitzer, 2017-06-01 Since its inception as an institutionalized discipline in the United States during the 1980s performance studies has focused on the interdisciplinary analysis of a broad spectrum of cultural behaviours including theatre dance folklore popular entertainments performance art protests cultural rituals and the performance of self in everyday life Performance Studies in Canada brings together a diverse group of scholars to explore the national emergence of performance studies as a field in Canada To date no systematic attempts has been made to consider how this methodology is being taught applied and rethought in Canadian contexts and Canadian performance studies scholarship remains largely unacknowledged within international discussions about the discipline This collection fills this gap by identifying multiple origins of performance studies scholarship in the country and highlighting significant works of performance theory and history that are rooted in Canadian culture Essays illustrate how specific institutional conditions and cultural investments Indigenous francophone multicultural and more produce alternative articulations of performance and reveal national identity as a performative construct A state of the art work on the state of the field Performance Studies in Canada foregrounds national and global performance knowledge to invigorate the discipline around the world

Beyond Immersive Theatre Adam Alston, 2016-05-18 Immersive theatre currently enjoys ubiquity popularity and recognition in theatre journalism and scholarship However the politics of immersive theatre aesthetics still lacks a substantial critique Does immersive theatre model a particular kind of politics or a particular kind of audience What s involved in the production and consumption of immersive theatre aesthetics Is a productive audience always an empowered audience And do the terms of an audience s empowerment stand up to political scrutiny Beyond Immersive Theatre contextualises these questions by tracing the evolution of neoliberal politics and the experience economy over the past four decades Through detailed critical analyses of work by Ray Lee Lundahl Seidl Punchdrunk Shunt Theatre Delicatessen and Half Cut Adam Alston argues that there is a tacit politics to immersive theatre aesthetics a tacit politics that is illuminated by neoliberalism and that is ripe to be challenged by the evolution and diversification of immersive theatre Contemporary British Theatre V. Angelaki, 2015-12-25 This edited collection brings together a team of internationally prominent academics and delivers cutting edge discourse on the strongly emerging tradition of experimentation in contemporary British theatre redefining what the dramatic stands for today Each chapter of the collection focuses on influential contemporary plays and playwrights When Broadway Was the Runway Marlis Schweitzer, 2009 Selected by Choice magazine as an Outstanding Academic Title for 2009 When Broadway Was the Runway explores the central and largely unacknowledged role of commercial Broadway theater in the birth of modern American fashion and consumer culture Long before Hollywood's red carpet spectacles Broadway theater introduced American women to the latest styles At the beginning of the twentieth century theater impresarios captured the imagination of their largely female patrons by transforming the stage into a glorious site of consumer spectacle Theater historian Marlis Schweitzer examines how these impresarios presented the dresses actresses wore onstage as well as the jewelry and hairstyles they chose as commodities that were available for purchase in nearby department stores and salons The Merry Widow Hat designed for the hit operetta of the same name sparked an international craze and the dancer Irene Castle became a fashion celebrity when she anticipated the flapper look of the 1920s by nearly a decade Not only were the latest styles onstage but advertisements appeared throughout theaters in programs and on the curtains while magazines such as Vogue vied for the rights to publish theatrical costume sketches and Harper's Bazar enticed readers with photo spreads of actresses in couture This combination of spectatorship and consumption was a crucial step in the formation of a mass market for consumer goods and the rise of the cult of celebrity Through historical analysis and dozens of early photographs and illustrations Schweitzer aims a spotlight at the cultural and economic convergence of the theater and fashion industries in the United States TDR, 2008 Performing America Abroad Leopold Lippert, 2018 What happens to America when it does not coincide with the geographical and institutional boundaries of the U S nation state What does America mean when it is performed abroad and circulates among populations and publics outside U S national contexts Performing America Abroad explores an unlikely American studies archive contemporary cultural performances in Austria and Germany which refer to the American cultural imaginary but enact it with a transnational difference The book discusses the ambivalent cultural politics of these enactments in the context of neoliberal capitalism specifically it looks at several cross racial performances of Indianness on various Austrian stages it examines queer political demonstrators on Vienna's central Ringstrasse who celebrate the legacy of the 1969 New York Stonewall riots and it discusses the Americanness of a series of theatrical adaptations of Arthur Miller's 1949 play Death of a Salesman in Germany and Austria Changing the Subject Joseph R. Roach, 2009 Leading theater scholars on the major developments in their field over the past 50 years PAJ, 2006

guided by three temporal concepts the new present the penultimate and kairos as developed by Alain Badiou Giorgio Agamben and Antonio Negri respectively She works across a field of performance that includes play texts by Aim C saire and C L R James and performances from Ni Ja Whitson to Cassils the Gob Squad to William Kentridge and African colonial revolts Hofesh Schechter to Forced Entertainment to Andrew Schneider and Omar Rajeh Along the way she also engages with Walter Benjamin black international and radical thought and performance Bruno Latour Stefano Harney and Fred Moten s logistics and the hold and accelerationism Representing a significant contribution to the growing interest in temporality in Theatre and Performance Studies the book offers alternatives to what have been prevailing temporal preoccupations in those fields Countering investments in phenomenology finitude ghosting repetition and return Wickstrom argues that theatre and performance can create a fiery sense of how to change time and thereby nominate a new possibility for what it means to live

Re-imagining the Crises of Global Capital Amin Thomas Samman,2013 This thesis explores the imaginary dimensions of economic crisis through a study of the interface between practices of historical representation and processes of social construction Its core argument is that a sense of history cannot be disentangled from the phenomena that it strives to apprehend As a result there can be no fixed and objective relation between the evolution of global capitalism and its long history of crises Instead the very intelligibility of both crisis and history is produced through an iterated telescoping of time whereby more or less distant events and episodes are grasped together in ways that lend meaning to those of the present This argument is taken forward via an in depth and quasi historical analysis of the 2008 crisis Focusing on how past crises figure within the pronouncements of international policymaking organisations and the commentary of the global financial press between 2007 and 2009 it develops a typology of different practices of historical representation and the various interpretive functions they are capable of performing In so doing it makes a theoretical contribution to the constructivist and cultural political economy literatures on the discursive negotiation of crisis
