Perform Repeat Record:

Perform, Repeat, Record Amelia Jones, Adrian Heathfield, 2012-01-01 Bringing together contributors from dance theatre visual studies and art history this title addresses the conundrum of how live art is positioned within history The Methuen Drama Companion to Performance Art Bertie Ferdman, Jovana Stokic, 2020-02-20 The Methuen Drama Companion to Performance Art offers a comprehensive guide to the major issues and interdisciplinary debates concerning performance in art contexts that have developed over the last decade It understands performance art as an institutional cultural and economic phenomenon rather than as a label or object Following the ever increasing institutionalization and mainstreaming of performance the book's chapters identify a marked change in the economies and labor practices surrounding performance art and explore how this development is reflective of capitalist approaches to art and event production Embracing what we perceive to be the oxymoronic status of performance art where it is simultaneously precarious and highly profitable the essays in this book map the myriad gestures and radical possibilities of this extreme contradiction This Companion adopts an interdisciplinary perspective to present performance art's legacies and its current practices It brings together specially commissioned essays from leading innovative scholars from a wide range of approaches including art history visual and performance studies dance and theatre scholarship in order to provide a comprehensive and multifocal overview of the emerging research trends and methodologies devoted to performance art Performance Hanna B Hölling, Jules Pelta Feldman, Emilie Magnin, 2023-11-01 This book focuses on performance and performance based artworks as seen through the lens of conservation which has long been overlooked in the larger theoretical debates about whether and how performance remains Unraveling the complexities involved in the conservation of performance Performance The Ethics and the Politics of Conservation and Care vol 1 brings this new understanding to bear in examining performance as an object of study experience acquisition and care In so doing it presents both theoretical frameworks and functional paradigms for thinking about and enacting the conservation of performance Further while the conservation of performance is undertheorized performance is nevertheless increasingly entering the art market and the museum meaning that there is an urgent need for discourse on how to care for these works long term In recent years a few pioneering conservators curators and scholars have begun to create frameworks for the longterm care of performance This volume presents explicates and contextualizes their work so that a larger discourse can commence It will thus serve the needs of conservation students and professors for whom literature on this subject is sorely needed This interdisciplinary book thus implements a novel rethinking of performance that will challenge and revitalize its conception in many fields such as art history theater performance studies heritage studies and anthropology Performance and Media Sarah Bay-Cheng, Jennifer Parker-Starbuck, David Z. Saltz, 2015-10-29 An innovative approach for explicating and mapping work at the media and performance nexus Performance Art in Ireland Aine Phillips, 2015-01-01 This book the first devoted to the history and contemporary forms of Irish performance art in the north and south of Ireland brings together contributions by prominent Irish artists and major academics It features rigorous critical and theoretical analysis as well as historical commentaries that provide an absorbing sense of the rich histories of performance art in Ireland Presenting diverse visual documentation of performance art practices this collection shows how performance art in Ireland engaged with and in turn influenced and led contemporary performance and Live Art internationally Co published with Live Art Development Agency

Katalin Cseh-Varga, Adam Czirak, 2018-02-01 Performance Art in the Second Public Sphere is the first interdisciplinary analysis of performance art in East Central and Southeast Europe under socialist rule By investigating the specifics of event based art forms in these regions each chapter explores the particular critical roles that this work assumed under censorial circumstances The artistic networks of Yugoslavia Hungary Latvia Lithuania Poland Romania East Germany and Czechoslovakia are discussed with a particular focus on the discourses that shaped artistic practice at the time drawing on the methods of Performance Studies and Media Studies as well as more familiar reference points from art history and area studies

The medium of Leonora Carrington Catriona McAra, 2022-11-29 Before her death the artist and writer Leonora Carrington 1917 2011 had already garnered a cult following with numerous creative people making the pilgrimage to meet her at her home in Mexico City Since then her fame has only increased Thinking across contemporary art media this book demonstrates how Carrington has posthumously become a medium in her own right critically haunting the creative intellectuals who met or knew her It explores the work of a remarkable variety of individuals and organisations including the artists Lucy Skaer Samantha Sweeting and Lynn Lu the actress Tilda Swinton the novelists Chloe Aridjis and Heidi Pitlor and the ensemble Double Edge Theatre This long awaited study provides essential reading for both new and established members of the burgeoning Carrington fan club

Reconstructing Performance Art Tancredi Gusman, 2023-05-26

This book investigates the practices of reconstructing and representing performance art and their power to shape this art form and our understanding of it Performance art emerged internationally between the 1960s and 1970s crossing disciplinary boundaries between performing arts and visual arts Because of the challenge it posed to the ontologies and paradigms of these fields performance art has since stimulated an ongoing debate on the most appropriate means to document preserve and display it Tancredi Gusman brings together international scholars from different disciplinary fields to examine methods media and approaches by which this art form has been represented and re activated over time and its transnational history reconstructed Through contributions and case studies spanning various countries regions and artistic fields the authors outline an innovative theoretical methodological framework for capturing the processes and strategies for transmitting the tangible and intangible heritage of performance art This book will be of great appeal to students researchers and practitioners in the fields of Theatre and Performance Studies as well as Visual Arts and Art History who have an interest in performance art its history and presence in the contemporary artistic and cultural landscape
