Performance, Exile and 'America' S. Jestrovic, Y. Meerzon, 2009-10-22 This collection investigates dramatic and performative renderings of America as an exilic place particularly focusing on issues of language space and identity It looks at ways in which immigrants and outsiders are embodied in American theatre practice and explores ways in which America is staged and dramatized by immigrants and foreigners International Performance Research Pedagogies Sruti Bala, Milija Gluhovic, Hanna Korsberg, Kati Röttger, 2017-11-07 This book offers a unique and much needed interrogation of the broader questions surrounding international performance research which are pertinent to the present and the future of Theatre and Performance studies Marking the completion of eight years of the Erasmus Mundus MA Programme in International Performance Research MAIPR a programme run jointly by the universities of Warwick UK Amsterdam Netherlands Helsinki Tampere Finland Arts in Belgrade Serbia and Trinity College Dublin Ireland the essays in this volume take stock of the achievements insights and challenges of what international performance research is or ought to be about By reflecting on the discipline of Performance Studies using the MAIPR programme as a case study in point the volume addresses the broader question of the critical link between the discipline of Performance Studies and humanities education in general examining their interactions in the contemporary university in the context of globalisation Recasting Transnationalism Through Performance C. McMahon, 2013-11-19 A rigorous ethnography of three international theatre festivals spanning the Portuguese speaking world this book examines the potential for African theatre artists to generate meaningful cultural and postcolonial dialogues in festival venues despite the challenges posed by a global arts market Political Performance in Syria Edward Ziter, 2014-11-04 Political Performance in Syria charts the history of a theatre that has sought the expansion of civil society and imagined alternate political realities In doing so the manuscript situates the current use of performance and theatre by artists of the Syrian Revolution within a long history of political contestation Performance in the Blockades of Neoliberalism M. Wickstrom, 2012-02-10 This book ranges from refugee camps in Palestine to halting sites of the Irish Travellers and elsewhere in search of a new politics practiced through performance Written through the intersection of performance and philosophy the book refutes neoliberalism's depoliticizing and strategic uses of humanitarianism human rights and development Theatre and Performance in the Asia-Pacific D. Varney, P. Eckersall, C. Hudson, B. Hatley, 2013-07-01 Theatre and Performance in the Asia Pacific is an innovative study of contemporary theatre and performance within the framework of modernity in the Asia Pacific It is an analysis of the theatrical imaginative as it manifests in theatre and performance in Australia Indonesia Japan and Singapore The Rise of Performance Studies J. Harding, C. Rosenthal, 2011-05-10 Few individuals have positioned their work more controversially or consequently than Richard Schechner within the pivotal debates that define Performance Studies The Rise of Performance Studies is the first collection of essays to critically examine the profound contributions that Schechner has made to Performance Studies as a discipline The Grammar of Politics and Performance Shirin M Rai, Janelle Reinelt, 2014-12-05 This volume brings together important work at the intersection of politics and performance studies While the languages of theatre and performance have long been deployed by other disciplines these are seldom deployed seriously and pursued systematically to discover the actual nature of the relationship between performance as a set of behavioural practices and the forms and the transactions of these other disciplines This book investigates the structural similarities and features of politics and performance which are referred to here as grammar a concept which also emphasizes the common communicational base or language of these fields In each of the chapters included in this collection key processes of both politics and performance are identified and analyzed demonstrating the critical and indivisible links between the fields The book also underlines that neither politics nor performance can take place without actors who perform and spectators who receive evaluate and react to these actions At the heart of the project is the ambition to bring about a paradigm change such that politics cannot be analyzed seriously without a sophisticated understanding of its performance All the chapters here display a concrete set of events practices and contexts within which politics and performance are inseparable elements This work will be of great interest to students and scholars in both International Relations and Performance Studies Performing Cities N. Whybrow, 2014-08-19 Performing Cities is an edited volume of contributions by a range of internationally renowned academics and performance makers from across the globe each one covering a particular city and examining it from the dynamic perspectives of performances occurring in cities and the city itself as performance Performing the 'New' Europe Karen Fricker, Milija Gluhovic, 2013-05-13 Bringing together the voices of scholars from Europe and North America with those of key contest stakeholders Performing the New Europe Identities Feelings and Politics in the Eurovision Song Contest argues that this popular music competition is a symbolic contact zone between European cultures an arena for European identification in which both national solidarity and participation in a European identity are confirmed and a site where cultural struggles over the meanings frontiers and limits of Europe are enacted This exciting collection explores the ways in which European artists perform disavow and contest their racial national and sexual identities in the Eurovision Song Contest ESC and asks difficult questions about European inclusions and exclusions the contest reflects It suggests the ESC as an ever evolving network of peoples and places transcending both historical and geographical boundaries of Europe that brings into being new understandings of the relationship between culture space and identities Racial Geometries of the Black Atlantic, Asian Pacific and American Theatre Shannon Steen, 2010-01-20 Drawing on original archival research Racial Geometries examines popular forms of performance from musical theatre and minstrelsy to non theatrical forms like Chinatown tourism to expose how American racial formation between the two world wars was not determined only within national borders but traded on and influenced international dynamics Indonesian Postcolonial Theatre Evan Darwin Winet, 2010-03-10 Drawing examples from as early as a 1619 production of Hamlet and as recent as 2007 performances by

Indonesia's most famous presidential impersonator this book considers how theatre functions as a uniquely effective medium for representing the contradictions of Indonesian identity in the urban colonial postcolonial metropole
