Performance Studies Bryan Reynolds, 2015-01-02 The field of performance studies analyses the production and impact of on stage performance such as in a theatre or circus and off stage performance such as cultural rituals and political protests Performance Studies Key Words Concepts and Theories introduces students to 34 key topics seen as paramount to the future of performance studies in a series of short engaging essays by an international team of distinguished scholars Each essay contributes to the wide ranging adventurous and conscientious nature that makes performance studies such an innovative valuable and exciting field

Performance in the Twenty-First Century Andy Lavender, 2016-05-26 Performance in the Twenty First Century Theatres of Engagement addresses the reshaping of theatre and performance after postmodernism Andy Lavender argues provocatively that after the classic postmodern tropes of detachment irony and contingency performance in the twenty first century engages more overtly with meaning politics and society It involves a newly pronounced form of personal experience often implicating the body and or one's sense of self This volume examines a range of performance events including work by both emergent and internationally significant companies and artists such as Rimini Protokoll Blast Theory dreamthinkspeak Zecora Ura Punchdrunk Ontroerend Goed Kris Verdonck Dries Verhoeven Rabih Mroue Derren Brown and David Blaine It also considers a wider range of cultural phenomena such as online social networking sports events installations games based work and theme parks where principles of performance are in play Performance in the Twenty First Century is a compelling and provocative resource for anybody interested in discovering how performance theory can be applied to cutting edge culture and indeed the world around them

Performance Constellations Marcela A. Fuentes, 2019-10-21 Performance Constellations maps transnational protest movements and the dynamics of networked expressive behavior in the streets and online as people struggle to be heard and effect long term social justice Its case studies explore collective political action in Latin America including the Zapatistas in the mid 90s protests during the 2001 Argentine economic crisis the 2011 Chilean student movement the 2014 2015 mobilizations for the disappeared Ayotzinapa students and the 2018 transnational reproductive rights movement The book analyzes uses of space time media communication and corporeality in protests such as virtual sit ins flash mobs scarfazos and hashtag campaigns arguing that these protests not only challenge hegemonic power but are also socially transformative While other studies have focused either on digital activism or on street protests Performance Constellations shows that they are in fact integrally entwined Zooming in on protest movements and art activism in Mexico Argentina and Chile and putting contemporary insurgent actions in dialogue with their historical precedents the book demonstrates how even in moments of extreme duress social actors in Latin America have taken up public and virtual space to intervene politically and to contest dominant powers

Traumatic Storytelling and Memory in Post-Apartheid South Africa Christopher J. Colvin, 2018-12-14 This book explores the practice of traumatic storytelling that emerged out of the South African Truth and Reconciliation Commission and came to play a key role in the lives of the members of the Khulumani Support Group for victims of apartheid era political violence Group members found traumatic storytelling both frustrating and yet also an important form of memory work that shaped how they saw themselves in the post apartheid era Drawing on ethnographic fieldwork the author examines how traumatic storytelling functioned not only as a kind of psychological healing and national political theatre but also as a potent form of social relation economic exchange political activism and expressive practice With emphasis on the personal social and political significance of the act of traumatic storytelling this volume asks why members of Khulumani despite their many disappointments continued to engage intensively in storying their experiences for themselves and others Examining what powers storytelling held for both group members and their witnesses and considering the ways in which storytelling enabled new senses of self and new understandings of what was possible in the years after the end of apartheid this book considers what we might learn more broadly from the experiences of Khulumani about the possibilities and limits of traumatic memory making as an instrument of personal social and political repair As such it will appeal to scholars of sociology anthropology and criminology with interest in justice and post conflict societies

African Modernity and the Philosophy of Culture in the Works of Femi Euba Iyunolu Osagie, 2017-06-05 This book is a significant and original contribution to the ongoing conversation on modernity It uses the creative and critical works of Nigerian playwright and novelist Femi Euba to demonstrate the place and function of African cultures in modernity and makes the case for the vibrancy of such cultures in the shaping and constitution of the modern world In addition to a critique of Euba s fifty year artistic career this book offers an account of Euba s formative relationship with the 1986 Nobel Prize for Literature winner Wole Soyinka during the promising days of the Nigerian theatre in the immediate post independence period and the effect of this relationship on Euba s artistic choices and reflections Euba contributes to our understanding of Africa s negotiation of modernity in significant ways especially in his sensitive reading of Esu the Yoruba god of fate and chance as an artistic consciousness whose historical and ideological mobility during New World slavery during Africa s colonial period and in the manifestations in the black diaspora today emblemizes the process we call modernity By using ritual myth and satire as avenues to the debate on modernity Euba lays emphasis on the transformative possibilities at the crossroads of history His works engage the psychological interconnections between old gods and new worlds and the dialogic relationship between tradition and modernity Delineating the philosophical and literary debates that reject an easy division between a stereotypically traditional Africa and a modern West the author shows how Euba s plays and novel engage the entwined and intimate relationships between the modern and the traditional in contemporary Africa and thereby she asserts the global resonance of Euba s African and specifically Yoruba conception of the world By meticulously collecting cataloguing and critiquing Euba s works Osagie models a new way of practicing African literary studies and invites us to glimpse narrative genius on the continent that she firmly believes African scholars should both promote and celebrate
