Peripheral Visions Learning Along The Way:

Peripheral Visions Mary C. Bateson, 2009-10-13 Mary Catherine Bateson author of Composing a Life is our guide on a fascinating intellectual exploration of lifetime learning from experience and encountering the unfamiliar Peripheral Visions begins with a sacrifice in a Persian garden moving on to a Philippine village and then to the Sinai desert and concludes with a description of a tour bus full of Tibetan monks Bateson's reflections bring these narratives home proposing surprising new vision of our own diverse and changing society and offering us the courage to participate even as we are still learning

Peripheral Visions Mary Catherine Bateson, 1994-05 Entrepreneurial Learning Richard Harrison, Claire M. Leitch, 2008-01-31 This book addresses the burgeoning interest in organizational learning and entrepreneurship bringing together for the first time a collection of new papers dealing explicitly with entrepreneurial learning Where past books have examined learning in a corporate context Harrison and Leitch focus instead on the learning process within entrepreneurship and the small business Areas covered include a review of the concept of entrepreneurial learning and the relationship between entrepreneurial learning and the wider literatures on management and organizational learning a review and development of a number of conceptual models of the process of learning in entrepreneurial contexts an illustration of the applications of concept of entrepreneurial learning in a range of contexts an international perspective on entrepreneurial learning

Global Explorers J. Stewart Black, Allen J. Morrison, Hal B. Gregersen, 2013-10-18 In this age of globalization challenges from economic uncertainty to emerging markets there are no mapped out answers for the international manager Global Explorers guides the global manager from the periphery to the center stage of international business leadership In a 1997 survey of Fortune 500 firms conducted by authors J Stewart Black Allen J Morrison and Hal B Gregersen virtually all companies indicated there was a severe shortage of global leaders The demand for competent global leaders far outstrips the supply Global Explorers provides the skills and outlines the competencies future global managers need to fill the leadership gap Using extensive research real life examples and 130 in depth interviews with senior executives representing 50 global companies including IBM Disney Exxon and Sony Global Explorers suggests the reasons for the global leadership shortage and identifies the necessary skills to compete in the international marketplace For managers who want to safeguard their corporate future in these changing times Global Explorers will help them develop a personal program for developing and balancing the skills they need to become successful global leaders

Narrative Inquiry D. Jean Clandinin, F. Michael Connelly, 2004-08-13 The literature on narrative inquiry has been until now widely scattered and theoretically incomplete Clandinin and Connelly have created a major tour de force This book is lucid fluid beautifully argued and rich in examples Students will find a wealth of arguments to support their research and teaching faculty will find everything they need to teach narrative inquiry theory and methods Yvonna S Lincoln professor Department of Educational Administration Texas A M University Understanding experience as lived and told stories also known as narrative inquiry has gained popularity and credence in qualitative research Unlike more traditional methods narrative inquiry successfully captures personal and human dimensions that cannot be quantified into dry facts and numerical data In this definitive guide Jean Clandinin and Michael Connelly draw from more than twenty years of field experience to show how narrative inquiry can be used in educational and social science research Tracing the origins of narrative inquiry in the social sciences they offer new and practical ideas for conducting fieldwork composing field notes and conveying research results Throughout the book stories and examples reveal a wide range of narrative methods Engaging and easy to read Narrative Inquiry is a practical resource from experts who have long pioneered the use of narrative in qualitative research

Ritual and Symbol in Peacebuilding Lisa Schirch, 2005 Serves as a guide to using ritual acts in peacebuilding efforts Abundant with examples of symbolic acts that aided the peace process Conflict is dramatic In theater literature story telling and news reporting it is a powerful mechanism that draws attention heightens the senses and evokes emotion Schirch argues that peacebuilding has the potential to do just the same Examples of peacebuilding often center on the serious rational negotiations and formal problem solving efforts in conflict situations Schirch argues though that what truly bonds adversaries and helps achieve peace are the symbolic non verbal ritual acts shaking hands sharing a meal showing a photograph of a loved one Yet these are often overlooked as deliberate components of peace negotiations Ritual and Symbol in Peacebuilding underscores the importance of incorporating symbolic tools including ritual into traditional approaches to conflict Ritual assists in solving complex deep rooted conflicts and helps to confirm and transform worldviews identities and relationships With theories and language to explain the symbolic dimensions of conflict this text will be useful to scholars and practitioners active in the diverse field of peacebuilding
