Plague of the Dead Z. A. Recht, 2010-05-13 The Morningstar virus Those infected suffer delirium fever violent behaviour and a hundred per cent mortality rate But that s not the worst of it The victims return from the dead to walk the earth And when a massive military operation fails to contain the plague of the living dead it escalates into a worldwide pandemic On one side of the world thousands of miles from home a battle hardened general surveys the remnants of his command a young medic a veteran photographer a rash private and dozens of refugees all of them his responsibility Meanwhile in the United States an army colonel discovers the darker side of Morningstar and collaborates with a well known journalist to leak the information to the public

Silenced and Sidelined Carrie Lynn Arnold, 2020-07-01 In the age of multiple equity movements it is critical to explore an unspoken nuance the silencing of women leaders Carrie Lynn Arnold calls attention to the history and complex dynamics that can suppress a leader s voice while offering solutions for change Women are taught to speak up develop confidence leverage their strengths polish their interpersonal skills widen their competencies and fight to sit at the table But once they make it to that executive chair they rarely examine the unspoken dynamics that impact their success The silencing of female voices is an all too common epidemic preventing women from harnessing their full capabilities and leading with maximum potential This phenomenon of isolating women by subduing their voices is a decades old tradition It can be impossible to avoid encounters organizational cultures and even feelings of self suppression that all foster silencing It is no longer about questioning competency or confidence It is about understanding the complex factors and biases that are deeply embedded in relationships between men and women amongst women and within the dynamics of systems and the self that allows for this trend to continue despite growing successes in equity Carrie Lynn Arnold examines silencing which is essential to name and recognize as a pre requisite to effective leadership By understanding where we have been before we may fully appreciate and call attention to where we need to go Regardless of your gender or whether you are an emerging leader or a CEO of a large corporation the silencing virus is capable of infecting everyone Silenced and Sidelined explores what it means to feel suppressed giving words to the experience so that leaders can begin different types of conversations about voice and leadership There are no shortcuts or simple easy steps this call to leadership is a call for courage It requires the ability to communicate with a voice that carries currency one people will not just hear but follow Given the complexity of our world and the challenges society faces we can no longer afford leaders with silenced voices
