Bad Weather Linda Åkeson McGurk, 2017-10-03 When Swedish born Linda McGurk moved to small town Indiana with her American husband to start a family she quickly realized that her outdoorsy ways were not the norm In Sweden children play outside all year round regardless of the weather and letting young babies nap outside in freezing temperatures is not only common it is a practice recommended by physicians In the US on the other hand she found that the playgrounds were mostly deserted Struggling to fit in and to decide what was best for her children McGurk turned to her own childhood for answers Could the Scandinavian philosophy of there is no such thing as bad weather only bad clothes be the key to better lives for her American children How We Deal With Gravity Ginger Scott, 1901

When her son Max was diagnosed with autism Avery Abbot's life changed forever Her husband left and her own dreams became a distant fantasy always second to fighting never ending battles to make sure Max was given opportunity love and respect Finding someone to fight along her side wasn't even on her list and she'd come to terms with the fact that she could never be her own priority again But a familiar face walking into her life in the form of 25 year old Mason Street had Avery's heart waging a war within Mason was a failure When he left his hometown five years ago he was never coming back it was only a matter of time before his records hit the billboard charts Women booze and rock n roll that was it for him But it seemed fate had a different plan in mind and with a dropped record contract little money and nowhere to go Mason turned to the only family that ever made him feel home the Abbotts Avery loved Mason silently for years until he broke her heart completely But time and life have a funny way of changing people and sometimes second chances are there for a reason Could this one save them both John Key: Portrait of a Prime Minister
