Monstrosity Labeling Monster Shelleys Frankenstein:

Racism, Monstrosity and Labeling. Crane's "The Monster" and Shelley's "Frankenstein" Demetrius Goncalves, 2015-11-11
Essay from the year 2015 in the subject Didactics for the subject English Literature Works grade 10 0 course English 102 language English abstract This paper will explore Stephen Crane's 1898 novella The Monster in a critical race approach Inside this theme there will be discussions based on alienation class distinctions race relations racism labeling and especially the mob violence a movement very popular among the population of the 1890s a period of intense and horrifying racial violence where many laws were created to prevent African Americans from integrating in society the appearance of race labeling and the lynch Also it will incorporate passages from Mary Shelley's Frankenstein trying to compare and contrast the role that alienation plays in both stories I will also try to discuss criminality on my research applying Becker's 1963 labeling theory on all examples provided

Monstrous Liminality Robert G. Beghetto, 2022-01-24 This book examines the transformation of the figure of the stranger in the literature of the modern age in terms of liminality As a spectral monster that has a paradoxical and liminal relationship to both the sacred and the secular the figure of the modern stranger has played a role in both adapting and shaping a culturally determined understanding of the self and the other With the advent of modernity the stranger the monster and the spectre became interconnected Haunting the edges of reason while also being absorbed into normal society all three together with the cyborg manifest the vulnerability of an age that is fearful of the return of the repressed Yet these figures can also become re-appropriated as positive symbols able to navigate between the dangerous and chaotic elements that threaten society while serving as precarious and ironic symbols of hope or sustainability The book shows the explanatory potential of focusing on the resacralizing in a paradoxical and liminal manner of traditionally sacred concepts such as messianic time and the utopian and the conflicts that emerged as a result of secularized modernity's denial of its own hybridization This approach to modern literature shows how the modern stranger a figure that is both paradoxically immersed and removed from society deals with the dangers of failing to be re-assimilated into mainstream society and is caught in a fixed or permanent state of liminality a state that can ultimately lead to boredom alienation nihilism and failure These monstrous aspects of liminality can also be rewarding in that traversing difficult and paradoxical avenues they confront both traditional and contemporary viewpoints enabling new and fresh perspectives suspended between imagination and reality past and future nature and artificial In many ways the modern stranger as a figure of literature and the cultural imagination has become more complicated and challenging in the post-modern contemporary age both clashing with and encompassing people who go beyond simply the psychological or even spiritual inability to blend in and out of society However while the stranger may be altering once again the defining or essentializing the figure could result in the creation of other sets of binaries and thereby dissolve the purpose and productiveness of both strangeness and liminality The intention of Monstrous Liminality is to trace the liminal sphere located between the secular and sacred that has characterized modernity itself This space has consequently altered the makeup of the stranger from something external into a figure far more liminal which is forced to traverse this uncanny space in an attempt to find new meanings for an age that is struggling to maintain any

Transgressive Womanhood: Investigating Vamps, Witches, Whores, Serial Killers and Monsters, 2019-02-26 This volume was first published by Inter Disciplinary Press in 2014 Despite the triumphs of the feminist movement the cultural stereotype of the evil woman remains Images of wanton treacherous malicious and monstrous females pervade art literature film mythology psychology and history This eBook is a compilation of some of the papers presented at the 5th Global Conference on Evil Women and the Feminine and provides a collection of fresh perspectives on the construction of transgressive femininities A core theme throughout many of the chapters is that the concept of evil is gendered and what appears as a sinister action is often contingent on the gender of the perpetrator While many behaviours are considered relatively unproblematic for a man they are seen as evil when executed by a woman The notion of female evil remains intimately tied to transgression and subversion of the norms regarding acceptable femininity

Poetics of the Native Yosra Amraoui, Bootheina Majoul, 2021-02-01 Natives Aborigines Indigenous populations and First Nations are all appellations that assert the legitimacy of various antecessors despite the subordinate position granted to them by colonial postcolonial and neo colonial theories In a perpetual quest for agency the native has been framed within a set of representational practices that claim for a redress of grievances Cultural mediatized and historical representations of the native tend to fall within the boundaries of either a bottom up or a top down view that fits within a structuralist paradigm that rarely questions the individual let alone the marginalized However there is a need to examine the systems within which indigenous narratives operate from a post structuralist stance in order to re read indigenous discourses and to celebrate the multiplicity of meanings inherent in them The need for an intercultural pragmatic reading of native discourse therefore reveals itself to be of utmost relevance This volume discusses indigenous literary performances native history and cultural representations of natives and aboriginal discourse from around the world Topics pivot around historicizing the native the role of testimony and primary sources displacement and the denial of native legitimacy and literary mis representations of natives among other themes

Whitehead, 2017-12-14 From Jack the Ripper to Frankenstein Halloween customs to Alexander McQueen collections Fashioning Horror examines how terror is fashioned visually symbolically and materially through fashion and costume in literature film and real life With a series of case studies that range from sensationalist cinema and Slasher films to true crime and nineteenth century literature the volume investigates the central importance of clothing to the horror genre and broadens our understanding of both material and popular culture Arguing that dress is fundamental to our understanding of character and setting within horror the chapters also reveal how the grotesque and horrific is at the center of fashion itself with its potential for instability disguise and carnivalesque subversion Packed with original research and bringing together a range of international scholars the book is the first to thoroughly examine the aesthetics of terror and the role of fashion in the construction of horror The Cinematic Rebirths of Frankenstein Caroline Picart, 2002 This text showcases the versatility of the Frankenstein myth as expressed in cinema s horror genre It offers a sustained critical analysis of the story s evolution over many decades many studios and many different styles of film making employing both primary texts and scholarly examination Monstrous Displays Harry V élez Qui ñones, 1999 Monstrous Displays explores how Spanish literature from the early seventeenth to the twentieth century represents some behaviors ideologies and identities as perverse It shows the ways in which narratives of perversion steeped in religious legal and scientific strictures appropriate the language of a highly ambiguous discourse that of monstrosity to render visible their abhorrent and alluring qualities Through readings of overlooked aspects of classic texts Lope de Vega s El castigo sin verganza Benito P rez Galdos Do a Perfecta and non traditional interpretations of lesser known texts V lez Qui ñones shows how the presence of a monstrous order of things can sometimes conceal a more troubling and relevant domain of perversion and how sometimes instead it indicates a subversive political program With its use of a wide variety of theoretical discourses Renaissance teratological treatises as well as the work of Judith Butler Jonathan Dollimore Marjorie Garber and others Monstrous Displays will engage readers and scholars in the fields of Hispanic Studies Queer Theory and Gender Studies Back cover
