Women and Resistance in the Maghreb Nabil Boudraa, Joseph Ohmann Krause, 2021-07-29 This book studies women's resistance in the three countries of the Maghreb concentrating on two questions First what has been the role of women artists since the 1960s in unlocking traditions and emancipating women on their own terms Second why have Maghrebi women rarely been given the right to be heard since Algeria Morocco and Tunisia gained national independence Honouring the artistic voices of women that have been largely eclipsed from both popular culture and political discourse in the Maghreb the work specifically examines resistance by women since 1960s in the Maghreb through cinema politics and the arts In an ancillary way the volume addresses a wide range of questions that are specific to Maghrebi women related to upbringing sexuality marriage education representation exclusion and historical memory These issues in their broadest dimensions opened the gates to responses in different fields in both the humanities and the social sciences The research presents scholarship by not only leading scholars in Francophone studies cultural history and specialists in women studies but also some of the most important film critics and practicing feminist advocates The variety of periods and disciplines in this collection allow for a coherent and general understanding of Maghrebi societies since decolonization The volume is a key resource to students and scholars interested in women's studies the Maghreb and Middle East studies

Double-Edged Politics on Women's Rights in the MENA Region Hanane Darhour, Drude Dahlerup, 2019-10-11 While the Arab Uprisings presented new opportunities for the empowerment of women the sidelining of women remains a constant risk in the post revolutionist MENA countries Changes in the position of women are crucial to the reconfiguration of state society relations and to the discussions between Islamist and secular trends Theoretically framed and based on new empirical data this edited volume explores women's activism and political representation as well as discursive changes with a particular focus on secular and Islamic feminism and changes in popular opinions on women's position in society While the contributors express optimistic as well as more pessimistic views
