We Can Teach That Ewa Dziedzic-Elliott, 2024-11-28 Information literacy is a complex subject that finally arrived at the doorstep of school libraries For decades academic researchers have been trying to capture the essence of information literacy its educational cognitive and civic value The collection of book chapters offered in We Can Teach That is a handbook that can be used as an inspiration for teaching various types of literacy visual digital multicultural health and more The book asks important questions When do we start teaching information literacy How do we teach it How does it affect our students at their education level How does it prepare them for their post high school adult life Does it impact their transition to college or career Dziedzic Elliott and her collaborators provide a range of best practices and concepts that inspire thinking about teaching information literacy at all levels Although written with school librarians in mind the book can be easily adapted by teachers school administrators and even public librarians who are looking to incorporate information literacy elements in their daily practices The book challenges the reader to rethink what they know about digital or tech literacy breaks some stereotypical concepts about multicultural literacy and highlights the importance of literacies even in adulthood

Deepfakes Graham Meikle, 2022-09-22 What happens when we can no longer believe what we see Show the AI technologies that create deepfakes enough images of a celebrity or a politician and they will generate a convincing video in which that person appears to say and do things they have never actually said or done The result is a media environment in which anyone's face and image can be remixed and manipulated Graham Meikle explains how deepfakes synthetic media are made and used From celebrity porn and political satire to movie mash ups and disinformation campaigns this book explores themes of trust and consent as face swapping software becomes more common Meikle argues that deepfake videos allow for a new perspective on the taken for granted nature of contemporary media in which our capacity to remix and share content increasingly conflicts with our capacity to trust The book analyses how such videos deepen the social media environment in which the public and the personal converge and in which all human experience becomes data to be shared Timely clear and accessibly written this is an essential text for students and scholars of media communication cultural studies and sociology as well as general readers Artificial Intelligence and Human Perception Emma Lupano, Paolo Orrù, 2025-05-28 Popular Photography ,1983-09 AI ... ,2005 The Electrical Journal ,1957 Educational Times ,1888 The Electrician ,1926 AI Magazine ,1998 Electrical World ,1896 Science Abstracts ,1929 English Mechanic and Mirror of Science and Art ,1892 The Billboard ,1929 New York Review of the Telegraph and Telephone and Electrical Journal ,1899 Proceedings ,1999 *Electrical News.
