Automation Is a Myth Luke Munn,2022-04-05 For some automation will usher in a labor free utopia for others it signals a disastrous age to come Yet whether seen as dream or nightmare automation argues Munn is ultimately a fable that rests on a set of triple fictions There is the myth of full autonomy claiming that machines will take over production and supplant humans But far from being self acting technical solutions are piecemeal their support and maintenance reveals the immense human labor behind autonomous processes There is the myth of universal automation with technologies framed as a desituated force sweeping the globe But this fiction ignores the social cultural and geographical forces that shape technologies at a local level And there is the myth of automating everyone the generic figure of the human at the heart of automation claims But labor is socially stratified and so automation s fallout will be highly uneven falling heavier on some immigrants people of color women than others Munn moves from machine minders in China to warehouse pickers in the United States to explore the ways that new technologies do and don t reconfigure labor Combining this rich array of human stories with insights from media and cultural studies Munn points to a more nuanced localized and racialized understanding of the future of work

Frugal Living: A Step by Step Guide to a Frugal Life With Financial Freedom (Simple and Inexpensive Ways to Create Beautiful Art for Your Home) Steven Moultrie, It is desirable to make and maintain your household as spick and span as possible. However, it's not always that we find ourselves economically capable of fulfilling our desire to adorn our walls with things that we think deserve their own places up there. There are times when we take a more practical approach and decide what expenses are more important. What will I learn in this book? Introduction to frugal living, How to change a few habits, How to save on health and entertainment, How to save on the way you travel, And much, much more. We all have the Buddha nature within us, the potential for enlightenment, yet the suffering we face in life is due to our unwillingness to let go of the fleeting things in life. It is ignorance that stands in our way, nothing more. We all crave inner peace, peace of mind, and happiness.
