Doing Business in India Johan Andersson, 2021-06-25 I might be biased when I say this but I do believe it India is the most interesting and fascinating country in the world At the same time it is also the most complex In the beginning of my time in India I misunderstood many things misjudged many people and underestimated many ways of doing business During my years in India I have learned adapted and changed This book is about sharing these learnings and experiences with readers The typical reader is either the westerner who has lived and worked in India or has worked with Indians or is curious about India as a market Or it is the Indian who wants to understand how westerners think or work in the Indian context This book answers many of the questions that are of fundamental importance if one wants to excel or succeed in India Had I had answers to these kinds of questions my own runway would have been much shorter in the beginning of my India journey

Rethinking the Business Models of Business Schools Kai Peters, Richard R. Smith, Howard Thomas, 2018-01-17 Business schools around the world have grown and prospered in the last few decades but what does the future hold for business schools This book explores the potential future disruption of the business school tradition by considering funding value chains strategic groups value orientation innovation and business models The Great Brain Race Ben Wildavsky, 2010-04-05 In The Great Brain Race former U S News World Report education editor Ben Wildavsky presents the first popular account of how international competition for the brightest minds is transforming the world of higher education and why this revolution should be welcomed not feared Every year nearly three million international students study outside of their home countries a 40 percent increase since 1999 Newly created or expanded universities in China India and Saudi Arabia are competing with the likes of Harvard and Oxford for faculty students and research preeminence Satellite campuses of Western universities are springing up from Abu Dhabi and Singapore to South Africa Wildavsky shows that as international universities strive to become world class the new global education marketplace is providing more opportunities to more people than ever before Drawing on extensive reporting in China India the United States Europe and the Middle East Wildavsky chronicles the unprecedented international mobility of students and faculty the rapid spread of branch campuses the growth of for profit universities and the remarkable international expansion of college rankings Some university and government officials see the rise of worldwide academic competition as a threat going so far as to limit student mobility or thwart cross border university expansion But Wildavsky argues that this scholarly marketplace is creating a new global meritocracy one in which the spread of knowledge benefits everyone both educationally and economically The MBA Compass Bodo B. Schlegelmilch, George D. Iliev, 2023-11-10 Looking to pursue an MBA The journey can be daunting but fear not this book is here to guide you every step of the way With so many business schools and programs to choose from it s important to know what you re looking for That s where this book comes in The authors help you understand the differences between full time modular online and executive MBAs and provide expert advice on selecting the right program for your unique needs But that's not all the book also shows you how to make the most of your MBA experience helping you to develop knowledge skills and personal growth It explores the benefits of alumni associations and shows you how an MBA can be a game changer for your career And here's the best part you don't need to spend a fortune on a Harvard or Stanford MBA to achieve your goals The book introduces you to a range of high quality MBA programs across the globe from Europe to China India to Latin America that offer top notch alternatives that won't break the bank Whether you're a senior manager entrepreneur or fresh out of college this book is the ultimate resource for anyone seeking to unlock their full potential with an MBA

Transnational Governance Marie-Laure Djelic, Kerstin Sahlin-Andersson, 2006-08-10 Globalization involves a profound re-ordering of our world with the proliferation everywhere of rules and transnational modes of governance This book examines how this governance is formed changes and stabilizes Building on a rich and varied set of empirical cases it explores transnational rules and regulations and the organizing discursive and monitoring activities that frame sustain and reproduce them Beginning from an understanding of the powerful structuring forces that embed and form the context of transnational regulatory activities the book scrutinizes the actors involved how they are organized how they interact and how they transform themselves to adapt to this new regulatory landscape A powerful analysis of the modes and logics of transnational rule making and rule monitoring closes the book This authoritative resource offers ideal reading for all academic researchers and graduate students of governance and regulation

How to Develop a Sustainable Business School Véronique Ambrosini, Gavin Jack, Lisa Thomas, 2023-01-17 Tackling the pressing challenges that business schools face as they deliver the UN Sustainable Development Goals SDGs this scholarly How To guide provides rich insights into how to create and sustain the business schools of the future

The Institutional Development of Business Schools Andrew Marshall Pettigrew, Eric Cornuel, Ulrich Hommel, 2014 In recent years Business Schools have been the fastest growing part of the higher education system This book assesses this development and articulates a forward looking research agenda on the study of business schools as institutions

Robin Hood Math Noah Giansiracusa, 2025-08-05 How the rich and powerful use math to exploit you and what you can do to beat them at their own game Everything we do today is recorded as data that's sold to the highest bidder Plugging our personal data into impersonal algorithms has made government agencies more efficient and tech companies more profitable But all this comes at a price It's easy to feel like an insignificant number in a world of number crunchers who care more about their bottom line than your humanity It's time to flip the equation turning math into an empowering tool for the rest of us Award winning mathematician Noah Giansiracusa explains how the tech giants and financial institutions use formulas to get ahead and how anyone can use these same formulas in their everyday life You ll learn how to handle risk rationally make better investments take control of your social media and reclaim agency over the decisions you make each day In a society that all too often takes from the poor and gives to the rich math can be a vital democratizing force Robin Hood Math helps you to think for yourself act in your own best interests and thrive

How to Reform a Business School - The Ivy League Way Ashish Jaiswal,2015-02-16 Within 100 years of its existence BUSINESS for better or worse has become the most popular subject in higher education sending a larger number of graduates into the economy than any other Ironically the most popular discipline is also now the most condemned Undoubtedly business schools are at a crossroads and under the scanner In How to Reform a Business School Ashish Jaiswal meticulously demonstrates the problems plaguing the world of business schools and brings together the key contextual debates and concepts of foundational theory on the subject of reforms in MBAs Jaiswal makes a major methodological contribution to this little explored field by presenting a novel exploratory framework which employs a fresh combination of the social constructionist and implementation perspectives to research the implementation of business school reform Jaiswal conducts a rigorous in depth case study of one of the most substantial curricular and pedagogical reforms in business school history recently undertaken by Yale School of Management The Yale case study illustrates the forces influencing the development of a unique integrated MBA curriculum at an Ivy League business school and presents the factors that can help business schools around the world in implementing a successful reform Jaiswal establishes how the perceived identity of a particular business school impacts upon the way in which MBA curricula are evolving Ashish Jaiswal presents a strong argument against the monolithic treatment of higher education in the reform literature and urges scholars to focus on departmental idiosyncrasies and the territorial characteristics of subjects particularly in the MBA where context market and accreditation dynamics play a vital role How to Reform a Business School is a must read for business schools wanting to break the shackles of the ordinary and to successfully implement an MBA curriculum relevant in the 21st century

ADVANCE PRAISE There is little doubt that business schools are at a crossroads and looking for answers Jaiswal s superbly captured Yale School of Management s case study is a must read for business school deans and anyone remotely connected with or interested in reforming business education Jaiswal meticulously lifts the dark fog surrounding the world of curricular reforms in MBA The business schools can definitely use How to Reform a Business School as a manual to implement successful reforms A very important and timely book for business schools Sue Dopson Rhodes Trust Professor of Organisational Behaviour Sa d Business School University of Oxford MBAs have proved extraordinarily resilient in the last decade despite having played a role in the education of those often held responsible for the global financial collapse This book examines the way Yale succeeded in breaking the mould and developing an integrated curriculum that transcended the functional silos which still bedevil the vast majority of MBAs If you want to know what the future MBA looks like read this

Keith Grint Professor of Public Leadership Management Warwick Business School With calls for accountability in Higher Ed increasing this is a timely look at a curriculum reform at Yale s School of Management Ashish Jaiswal s dual focus on process and implementation of the MBA curriculum at Yale advances the study of curriculum reform and provides a road map for practitioners Dr Jaiswal pulls back the curtain and lets us see what s behind the wizardry at Yale School of Management Given Yale s resources prestige and brand their choices provide a good perspective for MBA programs around the globe William J Swinton Director International Business Studies Temple University Japan Campus Mastering Business Administration in Education and African Politics (Sierra Leone Chapter) Mohamed Sannoh, 2012-12-21 The purpose of this book is to highlight a comparative studies between developed and underdeveloped countries on the impact of policy making decisions and politics on education and business as Mohamed Sannoh recently discovered at Keele University in UK Thorough analysis relating to tribalism prolonged economic mismanagement by policy and decision makers in high places especially within the politics since independent in 1961 are reviewed to educate the new generation governments of Sierra Leone for the better This book is funny and educative though radical to the taste of politics of Sierra Leone and that s why Sierra Leonean politicians do not like reading it but those who attempt taking that first step learn great joy to enjoy politics of change that we all look forward to Ranking Business Schools Linda Wedlin, 2006-01-01 In her admirable book

Wedlin entangles what business school rankings really are and why they have become so important The book contains plenty to interest the growing army of business school employees whose duties at least in part are concerned with boosting their institution s position in the rankings Education and Training In times when the management education field is increasingly impacted by a proliferation of ranking exercises this book is a timely and welcome contribution Linda Wedlin unpacks for us the real meaning of the contemporary explosion of rankings Rather than simple classification schemes and mechanisms rankings are she suggests arenas where the field of business education is being created and re created They are the loci of boundary work whereby a field is progressively evolving and constituting itself This is a convincing study relying on rich empirical data and carefully anchored in relevant theoretical debates A must read for all those academics students policy makers and education professionals who want to understand the complex contemporary logics of higher education in management but also probably well beyond Marie Laure Djelic ESSEC Business School Paris France League tables appear everywhere and have become important aspects of business school environments Based on in depth and creatively combined empirical studies Linda Wedlin provides us with explanations and insights on the emergence and impact of such rankings This book should be of great value for all those who seek to play the ranking game It gives a fresh perspective on how classification mechanisms drive the emergence boundary setting and change of organizational fields Kerstin Sahlin Andersson Uppsala University Sweden A fascinating study of the complex issues surrounding MBA rankings Business schools really hate them but at times have to pretend to love them Magazines and newspapers are really interested in their sales potential but have to make pretensions about their veracity Linda Wedlin focuses on an area rich in hypocrisy and hype but also one where there are real consequences ranking furthered re inforces the homogenising tendencies of MBAs Anthony Hopwood Sa d Business School University of Oxford UK This is a most fascinating topic dealt with in a manner which is both serious and entertaining everyone in a business school would want to read it Linda Wedlin s excellent research is presented with a no nonsense approach if there is anything worth counting she counts it and then interprets it no fuss Exemplary Barbara Czarniawska G teborg University Sweden This engaging book offers a fresh perspective on the burgeoning field of European management education and its intense concern with rankings Using a creative mix of well crafted research tools Wedlin deftly captures a professional field in transition as it both expands and develops shared standards Walter W Powell Stanford University US International comparisons and rankings of universities and business schools have proliferated in recent years Ranking Business Schools provides a welcome analysis of this development and its implications for the field of management education theorizing the role of classifications such as rankings in forming and structuring organizational fields Focusing on the European experience with rankings and the subsequent response the book illustrates how business schools use rankings to form identities and positions and to draw boundaries for the field By both creating and confirming belonging to a business school community and providing distinction within that group rankings are important for defining an international field of management education organizations constructing an international business school market and constitute an arena for debating and establishing the boundaries of this field Building an extensive theoretical framework for understanding classification

Partnership Motives and Ethics in Corporate Investment in Higher Education Clevenger, Morgan R., MacGregor, Cynthia J., Sturm, Paul, 2021-06-25 The roles that corporate social responsibility CSR and business support of democracy play in American higher education are infrequently discussed though very important There are many ethical issues that concern both corporate interests as well as higher education linking the two more than many would think It is necessary to understand the environment inter organizational relationships and documents holistically to observe the rich history pluralistic American societal issues and relevant milestones between corporate America and higher education Partnership Motives and Ethics in Corporate Investment in Higher Education provides comprehensive documentation of business and corporate entanglements with higher education This work discusses the historic journey of funding from business and U S corporate engagement in American higher education Covering topics such as academy business relationships philanthropic partnerships and transactional partnerships this work is essential for professors executives managers faculty fundraisers leaders in higher education researchers students and academicians with interests in CSR business ethics and higher education
