Global Literary Studies Diana Roig-Sanz, Neus Rotger, 2022-12-05 While the very existence of global literary studies as an institutionalised field is not yet fully established the global turn in various disciplines in the humanities and the social sciences has been gaining traction in recent years This book aims to contribute to the field of global literary studies with a more inclusive and decentralising approach Specifically it responds to a double demand the need for expanding openness to other ways of seeing the global literary space by including multiple literary and cultural traditions and other interdisciplinary perspectives in the discussion and the need for conceptual models and different case studies that will help develop a global approach in four key avenues of research global translation flows and translation policies the post 1989 novel as a global form global literary environments and a global perspective on film and cinema history Gathering contributions from international scholars with expertise in various areas of research the volume is structured around five target concepts space scale time connectivity and agency We also take gender and LGBTQ perspectives as well as a digital approach

The Homeschooling Parent Teaches MATH! Kerridwen Mangala McNamara, 2023-11-10 We all worry about our kids learning math Even if the kids are in school there s always a concern Sometimes it s about the kid s concern sometimes it s about their teacher s concern parent teacher or otherwise But a lot of the time it s about US It s about our own math phobias those fears dislikes or aversions that we picked up from our own math experiences and that we inadvertently pass on to our kids We don t want them to be afraid of math we know that limits their opportunities and makes their lives harder and costs them more money but we just can t help it This book is here to help you deal with your own math phobias and come to if not outright enjoy math to at least appreciate it and be able to convey it to your kids without passing on the fear Kerridwen Mangala McNamara is NOT a math lover but she is a math appreciator and has worked through most of these issues herself Let her help you along your homeschooling journey and show you how to fight the Fear of Math monster so that it no longer intimidates you or your kids Library Journal ,2008

Ontario. Ministry of Training, Colleges and Universities, 2000. $100,000 and Counting Ashli McLean, 2012-08. 100,000 and Counting is a faith based guide to winning college scholarships. It is an eclectic mix of academic advice, scriptural references, self help principles, and a personal testimony. The power in utilizing both faith and works resides as the central theme. With conversational writing, the book provides a wealth of information on college planning, even as it remains a Christian inspirational. Infused with counsel from college and scholarship professionals, it is also wrapped up in McLean's personal testament of how her faith made way for God to provide over 100,000 in scholarships for her college education. With a special focus on minority students, 100,000 and Counting shares the resources and instruction regarding the college application and scholarships processes that many minorities feel disadvantaged in accessing. The book also includes a special guide for parents. 100,000 and Counting is an invaluable asset for parents and students seeking guidance on how to receive scholarships in a society where college costs are increasing significantly each year. Let's Talk About Scholarships

Scholarship Lady Staff, The, 2001. The Scholarship Book Daniel J. Cassidy, 1996. An updated directory to thousands of scholarships for undergraduates covers every major field of study. Bibliog. Scholarships 101 Kimberly Stezala, 2008. Author Kimberly Stezala passionately believes that every student should have access to a quality education. That's why in this essential and timely guide, she provides parents and their kids with step by step tips to approach the scholarship process like pros. Filled with inspiring advice from successful students and scholarship providers, Scholarships 101 shows aspiring college students how to apply for scholarships that are the best match for their profile and skills, create a scholarship application that will stand apart from the rest, and impress the judges, find the buried treasure of scholarships that aren't necessarily available on common websites, and build a team of supporters in their scholarship quest. Those students who are fortunate enough to be on the honor roll or are the star quarterback of the football team have access to the best scholarships. But what will happen to every other aspiring collegiate, those students who have the potential for a great college career but not necessarily the financial backing to attend their top choice school? Scholarships 101 offers the extra boost many students need to plan and realize the future of their dreams. AS and BS of Academic Scholarship Anna J.
